ALLEGED SALARY IRREGULARITIES DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

President of Lowell Teachers' Organization Says There is Dissatisfaction Because of Departure From Salary Schedules—Mention of "Inside Organization" Develops Considerable Discussion

The school committee held an adjourned meeting last night for the purpose of discussing budget estimates for 1923, but aside from learning that the estimates approximate $1,321,000, no action was taken.

Practically all the time of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of alleged inequalities in salary schedules as applied to elementary, junior high, vocational, continuation, and high school teachers. Miss Caroline A. Downey, president of the Lowell Teachers' organization, came before the committee representing teachers in all groups and said there is dissatisfaction among some teachers because of departure from salary schedule. She said there is a feeling that some junior high school teachers who are doing elementary grade work are receiving the $250 extra compensation allowed those who do high school work.

When Miss Downey spoke of an "inside organization," she stirred up considerable argument. Mr. Brudin wanted to know if this "inside organization" was within the school committee. Mr. Delaney asked his brother member to withdraw the statement, but Mr. Brudin said he was asking for information only and had no more to say. Miss Downey replied the organization re-

AMERICAN FORCES IN GERMANY LEAVE FOR HOME TODAY

Rhine-Watch Completed
EBRENBREITSTEIN, Germany, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press) The American forces in Germany, their Rhine-watch completed, turned home today.

The leaving of the day that was to see the American garrison march down the steep slope of Ehrenbreitstein, across the Rhine into Coblenz and thence, in company with the other units of the Eighth infantry, to the Antwerp train station. The Stars and Stripes hoisted to its accustomed place at reveille while doughty sentinels still mounted guard at the saltpores. Their packs were as ready as at any moment during the great war, but today the final "fall-in" meant home—the place where, as many a private put it, a dollar is one hundred cents and not several thousand marks.

It was a day of simple ceremony. Four sergeants, picked from among the veterans of the Seventh machine gun battalion, Third division, who fought at the battle of the Marne, were accorded the honor of assisting Major General Henry T. Allen in lowering the colors at the last retreat this noon. These non-commissioned officers were Sergeants Dewey Kitter, Lester Kelbaugh, Charles and Frank Ehley.

GALLAGHER FAVORS COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE ALARM SYSTEM

Isolation of Gorham Street Section From Fire Signal Service Still Continues as Department Electricians Try to Locate Trouble in Main Cable Wires—14 Boxes on "Dead" Circuit Still Out of Commission

Fire department electricians still are working today in an effort to find the trouble in the main cable which has isolated the entire Gorham street section of the city from fire alarm signal service and has knocked out 14 boxes located in that district and extending from the postoffice practically to the city line.

James J. Gallagher, city council president, said today he is in favor of the appointment of a council committee to make a thorough investigation of the entire alarm system and intimated he would name such a committee at a special meeting of the council, probably to be called for next Tuesday night.

If the break in the main cable which has caused the latest trouble is found it will be patched up to the alarm system and the boxes on the "dead" circuit to other circuits. All circuits are overloaded as they stand,

LEGIONAIRES OBJECT Commander of Local Post Condemns Action of Alleged Ex-Soldiers

Lowell Post, 37, American Legion, through its commander, Joseph A. Molloy, strongly condemns the existing practice of men purporting to be ex-soldiers making house to house canvasses in an attempt to sell small articles and using their former connection with army or navy as means of arousing sympathy.

In a statement given today, Commander Molloy says it is becoming common for such men to come to Lowell from out-of-town, wearing portions of old uniforms and impose upon the generosity of the general public by appealing to their sense of sympathy. "Practically all of these men are out and out fakes," declared the commander, "and are commercializing their war records, if they possess any. Lowell post of the Legion does not wish to tolerate the attempt to sell small articles and using their former connection with army or navy as means of arousing sympathy. The government will care for them and if they are Legion members, any post will be only too glad to extend a helping hand. They do not have to resort to public begging for sustenance."

4 MOVE TO CANCEL WAR DEBTS

Statement From Washington
Why U. S. Cannot Move
For Reparations Solution

Protest Against French Occupation of Ruhr "Worse Than Useless"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—American efforts to be helpful to Europe in the reparations crisis can be predicted only on a reasonable anticipation of success, it was reiterated yesterday by an authorized spokesman for the Washington government. Whatever the future may hold, there is no present ground for anticipating that any move the United States could make as a benevolent bystander would bear fruit. Words, it was said, whether of protest or in any other form, would be worse than useless.

A clean cut picture of the course of events was shown to show that there has been no moment since the failure of the allied premiers last August to agree on a reparations program when the Washington government might have moved directly with any hope of success.

In answer to suggestions that the United States protest against the French course, it was pointed out that not alone was no direct American interest involved, but that there was no foreknowledge of the nature of the occupation. It was pointed out that through all the months preceding the actual occupation, England, Belgium and Italy had sought fruitlessly for a way to avoid the situation that has now become an accomplished fact. It was made clear that officials here fully understood that, regardless of what American opinion as to the best means of American helpfulness may be, the peoples and governments of Europe believe it should take the form of debt cancellations.

There is no disposition in administration circles to ask authority to cancel the debts nor, it was said, is there any intention of making proposals to the allied powers which would be met by the challenge that the United States had not ratified the Treaty of Versailles, had not entered the League of Nations. It could not be doubted, it was said, that in these circumstances the question of allied debts would be promptly presented if the United States now embarked on any direct move toward a settlement.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow skin, dull eyes, redness, coated tongue, heartburn, indigestion, no good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitutes for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 15c and 30c.—Adv.

LOWELL CHORAL SOCIETY REHEARSAL

Drew, told of the society's aspirations. Under the direction of Eusebius G. Hood, director, there was a most excellent rehearsal of "Aida," Verdi's opera, which is to be presented in the Auditorium some time in May.

DARE-DEVIL CLIMBER WILL PERFORM HERE

That dare-devil climber, George Polley, also known as the "Human Fly," who one year ago last summer, scaled the Sun building and also the Chalfoux building, is back again to thrill all the folks he thrilled on his first visit and a few more.

George announces that tomorrow evening about 7 o'clock he will scale another big building in downtown Lowell, and a spot-light will follow him slowly up the sides of the structure he has selected for his dangerous climb.

George uses toe-holds, finger-holds and almost everything else, for on many buildings where he crawls painfully upward like a fly, on sticky paper, he finds very few good footholds to aid him, and the building he will select for his next hazardous climb in Lowell, is said to be minus handy places for securing safe grips.

ARE WOMEN OVERWORKED?

Yes, hundreds of thousands of them are. This applies to the housewife and mother who struggles on a small income to make both ends meet by doing all the washing, ironing, cooking, mending and mending for a large family. There are others who not only support themselves working in factories, shops, stores and offices, but often have an invalid father or mother to support, therefore do household duties. These are the women who break down early and are afflicted with various forms of female weakness. Ninety-eight out of every 100 women who have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have proved that it is a successful remedy for women's ills. For nearly 50 years it has been restoring women to health, and it will pay every ailing woman to try it.—Adv.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's An Old-time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one gray hair at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.

PROBE DOUBLE KILLING

Police Believe Murder of Couple and Burning of Home Work of Maniac

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 24.—Investigators of the killing of James A. Fraser McElish and his wife, Madeline, in their cottage on the estate of Paul FitzSimons last Sunday were working today on the theory that the murder and later burning of the home might have been done by a maniac.

A possible connection was seen between this case and the unexplained injury sustained by Isabel Latimer, a maid employed by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Eppley of New York at their Beacon Rock estate here last fall. The FitzSimons and Eppley estates adjoin. The maid's skull was fractured while she was in her bedroom. Members of the Eppley family expressed the belief that she had fallen and struck her head on some object while sleep walking and at the time no report of the matter was made to the police.

Police officials expressed their intention of interviewing the Eppley servants today.

School Committee Meeting

ferred to was in the Vocational school and explained that what she knew of it was limited to what one instructor had told her, to the effect that this "inside organization" had decided to seek increases individually after finding they could not get anything through the Teachers' organization.

Discussion brought out the fact that teachers who are doing grade work in a school that has been designated as a junior high are supposed to be preparing by special summer school work, for junior high positions and are given extra compensation for that reason.

Mrs. Pearson said a summer school course would cost a teacher more than the $360 paid her as extra salary. Miss Downey expressed the belief that it was not generally understood by the teachers that this extra money was to cover extra time spent in study and for self-development and thought. If this was understood there would be no dissatisfaction.

Mr. Delaney thought the junior high school teachers should be asked to come before the committee and state their side of the controversy. Mrs. Pearson did not think this was necessary, inasmuch as they have raised no question. The matter went to a vote and was defeated, 5 to 2. Mr. Delaney and Dr. Slaughter voting in favor.

Supt. Molloy presented a request from assistants to the headmaster at the high school for salary increases of $300 per year and with them, a schedule showing salaries being paid for similar positions in schools in other cities.

Mr. Riley said he had received verbal notification from primary school principals that their salaries were inadequate and he moved the committee consider the budget. Mr. Mullin favored an executive session, but the mayor opposed. Other discussion without action followed.

Henry J. Williams, business agent, gave the estimated cost of installing new shower baths in the high school annex and he was authorized to go ahead with the construction. New showers will cost $175 and additional needed equipment for the comfort of track athletes will approximate $500.

With the understanding that the budget will be taken up at the regular meeting next Tuesday night, the committee adjourned at 10:15 p. m.

voters in that city provides in detail: "Section 1.—Chapter 116 of the acts of 1921 is hereby amended by striking out section three and inserting in place thereof the following new sections: "Section 3.—The commission shall during its office hours hold sessions for the registration of voters extending where limited by the provisions of the general laws. Whenever, in their opinion, public convenience or necessity so requires, the commission may order sessions for the registration of voters to be held in any of the several voting precincts, or at the office of the commission in the city hall, and they may require suitable accommodations therefor, and they may, furthermore, prepare voting lists of the voters in the several voting precincts by streets or by alphabetical order as provided in section 55 of chapter 61 of the general laws. The commission shall at all times maintain suitable records which shall be open to public inspection. The election commission shall receive a salary of $2000 or such other salary as the mayor and the city council may by ordinance prescribe. "There is hereby established in the city of Lowell a listing board composed of the chief of police of the city and the board of election commissioners ex-officio. In case of a tie vote or other disagreement in said board, the presiding justice of the district court of Lowell, or in case of his disability, the senior associate justice of the court who is not disqualified shall, for the purpose of settling the disagreement, or breaking the tie vote, be a member of said board and shall preside and cast the deciding vote. "Section 4.—The listing board shall, within the first seven week days of April in each year, by itself or by its officers, visit every building in the city of Lowell, and, after diligent inquiry, make true lists, arranged by streets, wards and voting precincts, and containing as nearly as the board can ascertain, the name, age, occupation and residence on the first day of April in the preceding year, of every male person, 20 years of age or upward who is not a pauper in a public institution, residing in the city. The said lists shall also include such lists as all buildings used as residences by such male persons, in their order on the street where they are situated, by giving the number or other definite description of every such building so that it can readily be identified, and shall place opposite the number or other description of every such building the name, age, and occupation of every such male person residing therein on the first day of April in the current year, and his residence on the first day of April in the preceding year. The board shall also inquire at the residences of the women voters whose names are contained in the list prepared by the election commission, under the provisions of section 37 of chapter 61 of the general laws, and which shall be transmitted by said election commission to the listing board, before the first day of April in each year, whether such women voters are resident thereat, and shall thereupon make true lists of the women voters found by them. If in any year the chief of police shall believe it to be impracticable, because of any public exigency requiring unusual service from the police force of the city, to complete within the first seven week days of April the lists described in this section, he shall have authority, after giving notice in writing to the listing board, to take such further time for such visitation and transmission, not exceeding ten week days, as he shall deem necessary. "The board shall place in the lists made by it, opposite the name of every such male person, or woman voter, the name of the inmate, owner or occupant of the building or the name and residence of any other person, who gives the information relating to such male person or woman voter. Where such information is given by one person relating to more than one male person or woman voter residing in one building, ditto marks may be used in said lists under the name of the person giving the information, after his name has once been placed opposite the name of such male person or woman voter first written down as residing in the building. "The board shall, upon the personal application of a person listed for the correction of any error in their lists, or whenever informed of any such error, make an investigation, and upon proof thereof correct the error in their lists, and shall immediately notify the election commission of such correction, who shall correct their copies of said lists accordingly and proceed to revise and correct the registers under the provisions of section 55 of said chapter 61 of the general laws. The board shall cause all applications and affidavits received by it under this section to be preserved for two years. "Section 6.—The listing board shall, on or before the first day of April in each year, transmit to the assessor certified copies of those parts of the lists prepared as provided in the preceding section, containing the name, age, occupation and residence on the first day of April in the current year, and the residence on the first day of April in the preceding year, of every male person, 20 years of age or upward residing in said city, and shall promptly transmit to the assessors notice of every addition to and correction in the lists made by it. The board shall furnish all information in its possession necessary to aid the assessors in the performance of their duties. "Section 7.—The listing board shall, on or before the first day of June in each year, prepare printed copies of the lists prepared for the use of the assessors. The board shall print such lists in pamphlet form by precincts, deliver to the assessors as many copies thereof as they may require, and hold the remaining copies for public distribution. "Section 8.—If a male person, 20 years of age or upward, resident in Lowell on the first day of April, was not listed by the board, he shall, in order to establish his right to be listed, appear before the listing board at such time as it may designate, the members of which are hereby authorized to administer oaths for this purpose, and present under oath a statement in writing that he was on said day a resident of said city, giving his name, age, occupation and residence on the first day of April in the current year, and his residence on the first day of April in the preceding year. A male person, 20 years of age or upward, who becomes a resident of said city after the first day of April and desires to be listed, shall appear before any member of the listing board, who is hereby authorized to administer oaths for this purpose, and present under oath a statement in writing that he became a resident of said city at least six months immediately preceding the election at which he claims the right to vote, giving his name, age, occupation and residence on the first day of April in the preceding year. The section further provides that if the applicant is found to have given a true statement he shall be listed. "Section 9.—Every person, male or female, whose name has not been entered in the annual register in accordance with the preceding section shall, in order to be registered as a voter apply in person for registration and prove that he is qualified to register. "The bill also includes the city of Lowell in the sections which provide punishment for violators of the registration laws in Boston, Cambridge and Chelsea. HOYT.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THE STRAND
There's a brand of comedy awaiting you at The Strand, that carries with it a guarantee of genuine satisfaction and pleasure. Harold Lloyd in "Grandma's Boy" is the offering, and it's one of the best kind of superlative comedies. Herbert Rawlinson in "Another Man's Shoes" is the second feature, and this also is a most commendable bit of screen offering. The usual installation of Weekly, "Fun From the Press," and musical numbers add materially to the program. Beginning Thursday and continuing through the remainder of the week, William Farnum in his latest he-man story, "Without Compromise," will be one of the chief features, and an all-star cast, headed by Matt Moore, Ralph Graves and Marguerite de La Motte, are being shown in "The Jilt." These two specialties, together with the comedy, weekly and musical numbers, plus the comfort and convenience of Lowell's handiwork theatre, is a combination that cannot be excelled hereabouts. "Without Compromise" reflects the strong and vivid personality of Farnum, his latest screen success of his affords him excellent opportunity to in-

STAR WITNESS TO TESTIFY

"Smashing Surprise" Expected at Hearing Into Black Hooded Band Activities

Hearing Nears End—At Least 25 Persons Expected to Be Taken Into Custody

BASTROP, La., Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—With no more than a half dozen names on the prospective witness list, the state today was prepared to end the open hearing into the black hooded band activities which culminated in the death of Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard on Aug. 24, according to an announcement by A. C. Coco, attorney general.

The hearing, which convened here Jan. 4, will be concluded after a state witness takes the stand this afternoon. The testimony expected from this witness has been heralded as a "smashing surprise." However, there was no indication from the attorney general's staff as to what this evidence would be. It was rumored that an important identification might be made.

Orders for the cavalry (troop and other militia units stationed here) to move to their home stations after the departure of the attorney general and his staff were expected to reach here some time today from Adjutant General Tomblin.

Mr. Coco would not issue an official statement today relative to the procedure to be taken by the state in presenting its evidence gathered at the open hearing to the grand jury. It was, however, intimated that as soon as the testimony could be briefed and other preparations made the state would make a formal request that the matter be submitted to the Morhouse parish grand jury.

It was estimated that from three to five weeks would elapse before the state would be ready to take such a step.

Should no indictments be returned, it is understood that the attorney general is vested with the authority to draw up bills of information.

DRINK WATER WHEN KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take Glass of Salts If Your Back Aches or Bladder Troubles You

When you wake up with backache and dull aching pain in kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and lazy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog your body, you feel tired, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water holds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Hamilton Mfg. Co. Resumes Dividend Payments

of business, Tuesday, January 23, 1922." The notice is signed by Arthur R. Sharp, Hamilton company treasurer.

The early come-back of the Hamilton company was assured early in the fall, when preparations were made for putting out new goods and designs. Installation of new machinery was started promptly and space provided for special textile equipment of the kind never before installed in the Hamilton quarters on Jackson street.

During the period of the strike, it was known to both the strikers and to other mill executives generally about the city, that the Hamilton company, far from being "down and out," was prepared with heavy conserved funds to launch into a really brand new field of textile industrial endeavor.

To the surprise of those who thought at first the Hamilton was temporarily in a "bad way" and working along rocky channels, the corporation was really very quietly installing several exclusive departments for modern manufacturing needs.

While the renovations were costly, it was decided that the demands of the new textile era called for different and better grades of goods. The call was for new lines never before turned out at the Hamilton plant, and the Hamilton corporation met this demand promptly.

Catlin & Co., of New York City, wholesalers, handle the output of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., the Tremont & Suffolk mills and the Appleton company largely. The New York concern has been receiving new napped goods all season from the Lowell concern. Several lines of large size being entirely new and never before manufactured in Lowell. The lines of the Hamilton company comprise 4-4 bleached shakers and 4-4 solid colors, "Climax," "Camco," "Medora," "Potomac" and "Chamberland."

All of these new Hamilton lines are being shown in a new improved finish, and orders from all over the country through the Catlin house have been unusually heavy. The Hamilton "Camco" goods are novel and new also, making the range of novelties complete for 1923.

"Rainbow" and "Sundown" grades in the 4-4 solid colors are also shown in attractive range of the pastel shades.

Considering the activities of the Hamilton mills during the winter and the present output, which is heavy every week, the prospects for future runs are certainly good, in the opinion

THE AUTOMOBILE SHOW

This is "Appreciation Day"
at the Kasino—Big Crowds
View Exhibit

"Appreciation Day" at the Kasino. Watch the bustling automobile dealers and salesmen prove today their gratefulness for Lowell patrons' staunch support and extension of past favors.

The popularity of the 1923 automobile show at the Kasino is something genuine, something tangible and vital, proof adequate that the coming year is bound to be a winner in the great automotive industry everywhere.

The outpouring of people from far and near to enjoy the wonders on view at the Kasino show indicates the thriving condition of the automobile business today and its future prospects.

Attractive displays of the season's latest cars, exhibited in dignified fashion with capable salesmen on hand to explain every interesting detail of each and every car, provide a most inviting setting for immense gatherings of men and women autosists this week down on Thordike street.

Today is billed as "Appreciation Day." It is a very important day at the auto week exhibition, too. For the dealers, in selecting Wednesday for "Appreciation Day," believed that it should be set apart to impress upon the public the true value of the automobile, both as an agency of business and pleasure convenience.

And so today, with new souvenir distributions, many added features that will attract and hold attention, and arrangements made for the reception of numerous invited guests coming into this afternoon and this evening from other New England towns and cities to give prominence to the Lowell automobile distributing business, as a live institution from top to bottom, the automobile merchants are celebrating "Appreciation Day."

Salesmen Are Busy

Salesmen at the show are keeping pencils and notebooks handy these days. Prospects are more numerous this year; sales are clinched more readily; for the fair contains a presentation of every possible new car that anyone could desire.

Callers for information who want to see an automobile "special" not displayed here are at once escorted to the headquarters sales agencies, where

other new designs and popular models are on display.

In fact, with main attractions going on from 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. daily at the Kasino, each automobile merchant conducts a little show of his own at his individual headquarters, where salesmen are always on hand to welcome visitors and explain the virtues of each car on view in the regular sales quarters.

The attendance last evening was better than on any night during the show of last season—proving once more, auto merchants agree, that there is more genuine interest in the new cars this season than there was last year at this time. Because of the more prosperous conditions of business in general through the land, more people are buying cars this season for the reason that they are beginning to realize more and more what a useful thing a car is to a modern family, no matter whether the family resides in city or country and no matter what the size of the family income is.

A good car adaptable to the family requiring one, is a good purchase if common sense is used when the selection is made. There is a car for every purse at the 1923 Lowell automobile show. One can pay $5000 or $6000, as the whim or purse urges. And selecting a good car at the Kasino is a very easy matter, too, for salesmen today have learned their books, and they are better equipped to reveal the real virtues of their favorites than they used to be when cars were looked upon simply as machines, machine-made for machine purposes.

The local auto dealers have been receiving repeated warnings this week from big manufacturers in the middle west and other automobile centres, regarding the shortage of new cars everywhere. Orders must be sent in quickly if they are to be promptly filled.

The manufacturers in a dozen different plants have complained that orders are so heavy that deliveries may be slow for some months to come.

Spring Deliveries

Local dealers in almost every case want it emphasized that this would be an excellent time to place orders for spring deliveries, for the output of many automobile factories is so rapidly taken up that tardy buyers may have trouble getting cars on time unless they plan to file their orders early.

The orchestral music at the Kasino is attracting much attention and giving much pleasure each evening. The evening concerts will be continued until Saturday night.

Tomorrow will be known as "Suburban day," arrangements having been made to entertain many old and new friends from surrounding towns. Special features will be given for the visitors from outside Lowell proper, and arrangements made for receptions both at the Kasino and at the automobile salesrooms downtown. All visitors tomorrow are especially invited to make the regular business salesrooms their headquarters while in Lowell on pleasure bent, and arrangements have been made to properly receive and entertain all-comers anxious to visit Lowell and take in the 1923 show.

Gov. O'Dea announced today that on Friday—"Governor's day"—Id. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller will come to Lowell in place of Gov. Channing H. Cox and will deliver a lively address, probably in the evening. Mr. Fuller is internationally known in the automobile world. At this time there will be a program of special interest besides the lieutenant-governor's address and reception, and this is expected to be the biggest night of the week in local automobile circles.

THE CADILLAC PEOPLE PICK GOOD DEALERS

One of the first problems that con-

fronts a business organization which distributes through the trade is the selection of suitable dealers. The Cadillac Motor Car Co. has, from the very beginning, appreciated the importance of this work, and has left no stone unturned to build and maintain a dealer personnel that is second to none in this country.

To the right type of dealer Cadillac presents many unusual advantages not to be found elsewhere. The one big outstanding point is that the dealer in handling a Cadillac, a car noted throughout the world for its wonderful appearance and masterful performance.

Back of the car stands the Cadillac company, strong, sincere and responsible, always ready to help the individual dealer.

Of other things that help to make the lot of the Cadillac dealer a pleasant one is Cadillac's fine reputation which has earned for it the title standard of the world, Cadillac service, sure and dependable, Cadillac clientele, excellent and substantial Cadillac's high resale value, and Cadillac's growth year after year.

Cadillac is proud of its dealers. Its growth is their growth, its prosperity depends on them, its future is largely in their hands. Strong mutual ties bind the dealers and the company together in one close-knit organization; and the result is a success that is becoming more marked as time goes on. The Cadillac is sold in Lowell by George H. Dana & Son, East Merrimack street.

"EAST IS WEST" BIC HIT AT OPERA HOUSE

The great crowds that are surging to the Opera House this week prove that the new stock players are making a great hit with the theatre goers of Lowell. Their first play "East is West" is an exceptionally fine one and pleased every one in the large audience. Seats are selling for all week as well as next week when they will be seen in Geo. M. Cohan's play "The Meenest Man in the World." There will be matinees every day this week except Friday. Seats may also be reserved by calling 261 for reservations or purchased from the Song Shop, the uptown branch of the box office.

Here Is Oakland's New "Mileage-Basis Plan"

—a Definite Way to Gauge Motor Car Value!

You've been waiting for this advertisement for one week! But you've been waiting—for a good many years—for the facts contained in this advertisement.

Since the beginning of the automobile industry, you and every other serious-minded buyer have wanted a definite gauge by which to estimate, in advance, the mileage you could reasonably hope to get out of a car because of the quality built into it.

And now—upon the records of exhaustive factory, road and laboratory tests—and upon the actual experience of many thousands of owners everywhere—Oakland is so certain of the superior and unequalled quality built into its "Six-44" that it offers you this unusual "Mileage-Basis Plan!"

This plan enables you to determine, with absolute accuracy, the quality of the Oakland Six—the superior quality that is responsible for its superior value—a value quite without equal at Oakland's low list price!

Main Bearings - - - - - 40,000 miles—plus!

Oakland's main crank shaft bearings will function properly for 40,000 miles or more, without adjustment or replacement. This exceptional mileage is due to the use of special, patented, bronze-back bearings, fitted to their places with the precise workmanship and unusually fine machine practice that guards the manufacture of every part of the Oakland Six.

Valves - - - - - 15,000 miles—plus!

Oakland valves will function properly for 15,000 miles or more without need of grinding. Oakland values owe this uncommon durability to the use of a special steel alloy—the finest substance known for valve material.

Connecting Rod Bearings - - - 40,000 miles—plus!

Oakland connecting rod bearings will function properly for 40,000 miles or more. In constructing these bearings Oakland employs the highest grade Babbitt the market affords. Oakland not only uses the highest grade of Babbitt but it employs a special chilling process in pouring that insures a bearing structure of the closest possible grain. Moreover, it binds this Babbitt bearing to the rod with a pure tin binder—a method regarded by engineers as the best that can be employed.

Cylinders, Pistons and Rings - 15,000 miles—plus!

All Oakland 1923 models continue to carry the special written 15,000 mile guarantee against excess oil in the combustion chamber (commonly known as oil pumping). This guarantee is made possible because Oakland cylinders are honed to the smoothness of glass; its pistons are of special aluminum alloy, and its special, two-piece, oil-sealing piston rings are the most efficient used in any engine.

Proof of the high quality of this construction, and of the in-built goodness of the Oakland engine, is found in the fact that out of the many thousands built and sold last year, it cost Oakland but a fraction of a cent per car to make good the unusual written engine-performance guarantee.

Gasoline Mileage - - - - - 20 to 25 miles!

Oakland cars will average, in daily use, from 20 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline. This unusual economy is the result of Oakland's new carburetion system with its automatic heat control—together with the correct design of its remarkable engine.

Tires - - - - - 15,000 to 25,000 miles!

Because of the perfect balance of the Oakland car, and its liberal-sized tires—Oaklands regularly average from 15,000 to 25,000 miles per set of tires.

Transmission, Axles, Frame, etc. - Life of the Car!

Oakland transmissions, front and rear axles, frames, steering gears, bodies and other major parts, are so sturdily built of high quality materials that they invariably endure for the life of the car.

The figures above (which are in all instances minimum figures) cover the essential parts of an automobile. They offer complete and convincing proof that Oakland has a composite automobile—so correctly designed and so strongly and sturdily built that it will give long-enduring and satisfying service.

Confident of the superior high quality built into every part of the Oakland Six, this remarkable "Mileage-Basis Plan"—the only true way to judge motor car value—is frankly and fearlessly offered by Oakland—a permanent division of General Motors Corporation.

GERMAN NOTES MADE PUBLIC

Protest Alleged Terrorizing
"Measures" Against German Officials in Ruhr

Attempt to Force Germans to Aid in Execution of "Illegal Measures"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The German government in two notes handed
to the French, British and Belgian
governments has protested against alleged "terrorizing measures" against German officials in the Ruhr, and declared that the French and Belgian occupation of the Ruhr, and declared ordinances of the inter-allied Rhineland commission covering the occupation to have "no legal value."

Both notes, the one relating to ordinances of the Rhineland commission
also being addressed to the Italian
government, were made public here
last night by the German embassy.
The note protesting against the expulsion from occupied territory of German officials, who, complying with
"legitimate instructions" from their government, refuse "to render assistance in the execution of ordinances issued contrary to treaties and to international law," declared such steps "obviously aim at intimidating the other

officials." The expulsions, it says,
"take place with utter disregard and
brutality," with a time limit of only
a few hours granted "in most cases"
and members of the expelled officials'
families included in the orders.

The note delivered to the four powers contends that in the occupied territory "German sovereignty" is merely restricted by the Rhineland convention, and that "no measures on the part of the allies are admissible which
exceed the stipulations of the said
convention." "These bounds," the note
declares, are "transgressed" by every one of the ordinances issued by the
inter-allied Rhineland commission Jan.
13 and 15 covering the occupation,
and it describes as an "incredible imposition" the order given to German officials and authorities to take an active part in executing the purposes
of the occupying forces.

The note contends, that, in issuing
the ordinances, the commission "has abandoned the legal basis on which it
was founded."

"By violating in the gravest manner
the prohibition and financial sanction of Germany and, in particular,
of the German territories concerned,"
it states, "the Rhineland commission
has put itself at the disposal of the military enterprise at present undertaken by the French and Belgian
governments in defiance of international law and of the treaty of Versailles. Even in time of war, it is entirely illegal to force the home authorities of the occupied territory to take part in the execution of measures
aiming at their own government.
Therefore, the German government and the governments of the various German states have pointed out to
their officials that those ordinances
which are in contradiction with the

ESSEN, Jan. 21.—(By the Associated Press) It was stated here today that
the total number of industrial workers
and miners now on strike approxi-
mated 200,000, in addition to the personnel at the railroad stations which
are occupied by troops.

If the French court-martial passes
sentence on the mine directors at May-
ence, it is declared that 550,000 miners
will consider strike action.

The workers who have already left
their jobs include 100,000 miners from
the Stines mills and 55,000 steel workers from the Thyssen plants.

The mines owned by the Thyssen
interests, employing 50,000 men have not yet ceased to operate. All the state mines are working as well.

German quarters heard today that
the French occupation authorities have given a Catholic priest of this city 15,000 marks with which to buy
food for poor children.

It is announced 500 cases of food,
valued at 75,000 marks, are being
shipped here from the central relief
committee in New York city.

The Ruhr coal miners today received
a wage increase of about 30 per cent
over the January scale, effective Feb.
1. The extra allowance for the increased cost of living will be almost doubled.

value and are not to be complied with."

"The German government," it says,
"has never intended or stated it would
refuse delivery of the coal necessary
for the occupation forces. In reality,
the ordinance issued merely aims, with
a view of furthering the Ruhr enterprise, to render possible under protection of military law, the activities
in the occupied Rhineland territory of
the organ established at Essen in violation of the treaty."

"The other ordinances, which do not
even contain an attempt to justify their existence by stipulation of the Rhineland convention, aim at depleting
the owners, i. e., the German republic, the German states and municipalities of receipts to the benefit of the respective allied powers."

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—(By the Associ-

of sanctions and pledges by Germany's reparations negotiations, in the opinion of the German government as set forth in a semi-official statement. Germany should also be allowed to devel-

the problem and should be permitted
to discuss them "on an equal footing
with her opponents," the statement asserts.

Taking note of what are termed various external attempts to end the Ruhr occupation, the statement declares that "Germany, as ever, is ready
to negotiate for a reasonable solution
of the reparations question," and adds
that "for technical reasons" such negotiations are impossible with French and Belgian troops have such a foot-
hold in the Ruhr.

Sentiment against France and Belgium, which has resulted in a virtual boycott of anything involving these countries, so far has not forced the French and Belgian members of the

Inter-Allied control commission to
leave their hotel here, although the Munich commissioners have left that city for Mayence.

THE CHALMERS

A Car Representing Highest
Ideals in Body Design

The Chalmers coach which is being exhibited at the Auto Show by Henry
A. Dismontette of the Chevrolet street
garage, is sure to attract more than
the ordinary amount of attention, for
just simply to see these cars is to realize that they represent the highest ideals in body design and equipment.

In speaking of the New Chalmers
Six, Mr. Dismontette says:
"To see these new cars is to realize
that they represent the highest ideals
in body design and equipment."
"From the new fenders, top and
radiator down to such small details
as floor lights, which work automatically with the opening of the doors,
the cars give every evidence of the
most careful and modern practices in building—in fact, they show many
touches of 'custom-building'."

To ride in them, even for a short distance, is sufficient to mark the silent, powerful, smooth-running motor
and the genuine riding comfort found
in the long springs and the deep upholstery. Many people have come to us
expecting, because of the price which
the new series bears, to see a small,
light car. "They have been just as amazed as we were to find that it is
a full-size, powerful car, with all the
qualities one expects to find in a high-
priced automobile."

German Coal Magnates Found Guilty

that they refused to obey the orders
of the French control commission.
Dr. Frederick Grimm, the Essen lawyer retained by Herr Thyssen, was assisted by Counsellors Wallack of Essen, Alfred Friedman and Herr Neumann of Mayence, and M. Leclerc of Nancy, the French attorney assigned by the French
army as technical adviser to the Germans.

Colonel Debeugnot, the ranking prosecutor of the French Rhine army, in opening court cautioned the spectators to refrain from demonstrations.

The trial began immediately upon
the arrival of Herr Thyssen, Keaton Wuestenhofer, Tengelmann, Gils and Spindler.

The charge was read and Mr. Grimm began his argument to establish the legality of the arrests and the trial.
He concluded with a demand that the
court declare itself incompetent, basing
his argument on The Hague conventions of 1899 and 1907, as well as the Rhineland convention.

Captain Bodin, the prosecutor, replied that the court, after consulting
in private for 15 minutes, declared its competency and ordered the trial to proceed.

Herr Thyssen was the first prisoner
to be questioned. He admitted having refused on January 15 at Breiden, to obey an order given by the occupation
authorities for the delivery of coal.
"I am a German, and my duty com-
pels me to obey the orders of my country," he said, "to serve my country." He said the entry of troops into the Ruhr
was not justified by anything. "That will remain faithful to my fatherland."

At the suggestion of the French
technical adviser as a means of simplifying the procedure, Herr Thyssen
then told the circumstances under which the French had summoned the industrial leaders to a meeting, which
he did not attend, at which the French instructed them to obey orders, and his subsequent announcement that he
"must obey the German authorities,"
and could not "comply under menace."

Herr Thyssen told how the industrial leaders informed M. Coste, head of the French inspector general of mines,
that they would supply coal if paid
for it, provided the German government did not order otherwise, and how
orders were given afterward to the mines to continue delivering coal, but
that the Berlin government telegraphed instructions not to deliver
coal, the industrialists then informing
M. Coste that they must obey their government.

The five other prisoners gave their account to Herr Thyssen's statement.
The prosecution called Lieutenant
porier of the gendarmerie who testified to the refusal to obey orders to deliver coal.

Would Take Father's Place

The 30-year-old son of Herr Wues-tenhofer, who appeared in place of his father, testified that the other Wues-tenhofer was ill. He asked permission to take his father's place as a defendant. The testimony submitted for the father showed that his things had sent out 20 tons of coal to France and Belgium on January 1, and the son
admitted that he had sent 212 tons to the same consignees. Five other witnesses supported the testimony that
the industrialists had really delivered
some coal until the morning of January 15.

Prosecutor Bodin in summing up referred to Article 12 of the annex to

The Hague convention of 1907 which
says:

"Territory is considered occupied
when it is actually placed under the authority of the hostile army." It contended such a condition existed in the present case.

Captain Bodin also cited article 13 of
the same convention, reading:
"The authority of the legitimate
power having in effect, passed into the hands of the occupant, the latter shall
take all the measures in his power to restore and insure, as far as possible,
public order and safety, while respecting, unless absolutely prevented, the
laws in force in the country."

The prosecutor contended the Franco-Belgian forces had complied with
this article.

Captain Bodin likewise cited articles
2 and 3 of General De Goutte's regulations of January 11, and provisions
of the French penal code and military code. He demanded that the court impose sentence, but said he appreciated
the defendant's motives and was inclined to leniency, referring to the provision in General De Goutte's regulations for the imposition of a fine.

The president of the court ordered
an adjournment until 1:45 p. m. Dr.
Grimm, for the defendants asked that
the adjournment be until 4 p. m. This was refused. M. Le Clerc, French attorney for the Germans suggested 2:30 o'clock, stating that the defense was awaiting an attorney from Paris. The court granted this request.

The chamber of the court of Justice
where the trial was held was packed
to overflowing. Journalists representing newspapers in all parts of the
world took up most of the room.
French troops stood guard inside and outside the court.

THE LOWELL ROTARY CLUB

Organizer of Local Club
Guest of Lowell Rotarians
Today

Lester P. Winchenbaugh Re-views World Rotary Work
—Wm. Mitchell Honored

When Lester P. Winchenbaugh, Boston Rotarian and business expert, came to Lowell a few years ago and attempted to start a Rotary club here, he had the job of his life for many reasons now better forgotten. But he organized the club anyway, after many discouraging trials, and from that first "rally" when barely a baker's dozen Lowell citizens appeared to see what was going on, until today, Lester P. Winchenbaugh of Boston has been watching Lowell Rotary grow and expand four ways and then some. And he returned in person to Lowell today to congratulate the members for their healthy, solid growth following a mighty unpromising beginning.

Before Mr. Winchenbaugh was introduced, William Mitchell, who is going sailing over the western seas to China in a few weeks, was honored by being made a member of the Rotary club "until he returns." Meaning that Mr. Mitchell won't have to worry anybody about his club dues for some time to come.

Someone suggested that the anniversary of International Rotary be held on Feb. 19, but as the Memorial Auditorium is engaged for a business banquet on that evening, the Rotarians will have to find another night, Feb. 26, will probably be on Feb. 23, although Monday, Feb. 26 is looked upon very favorably by some members for the Rotarian celebration.

When the dinner date is settled, only Rotarians will be allowed to participate in the evening's program. Not any kind of an outsider—not even the janitor—will be allowed within the Liberty hall dining place on this Rotarian evening. The evening, although guests from other Rotary clubs are coming and will be entertained. Several Rotarian stunts, all new, will be introduced at this annual banquet rally.

Royal P. White, in charge of the membership contest with Fitchburg Rotarians, didn't know he had been made chairman of the Lowell contest, but will have a report to make tonight, and also Thursday noon at 12 o'clock, when the Lowell committee has a little meeting at the York club. The membership attendance contest, which is to end about March 6, and the rules and regulations read like a set of signs on a college road, with many musts and don'ts and shalls and wills.

An invitation from the Lowell Advertising club to Rotarians to not only take part in the proposed "L.A.C." winter carnival to be held soon, but contribute just a mere $50 to the general fund, was received calmly and with recommendation of Harry Pollard, who hosted the carnival nicely and said it would show what genuine Lowell hospitality can do when exerted along the right lines even in the winter time. The matter of giving the $50 was referred to the president and treasurer.

The Rotarians expressed their approval of the Advertising club carnival program and hope this feature event of the season in Lowell open air parties will prove a record-breaker. Two young men out of work were brought before the Rotarians today and the members asked to aid them by giving them steady or temporary employment of some kind. One soldier boy has an aged mother and two invalid brothers to support. He receives a $50 pension from Uncle Sam, but the money doesn't go very far. He has been unable to secure work this winter. Another, although employed during the summer with the Lowell street department forces.

The second applicant for Rotarian aid was for 23 years a member of Uncle Sam's marines, and has been retired on half-pay, $20 a month. He has been unable to find steady work. He would like a position as a watchman or similar employment. The Rotarians voted to aid both veterans promptly and work will be found for them if there is a place for them in town.

Harry Pitts and Russell Dana, representing the Lowell Automobile Merchants' association, appeared and distributed tickets for the Casino exhibition. They were warmly welcomed, but the boys preferred to pay for each ticket to help the association along.

Former President Winchenbaugh, appearing once more at the head table and warmly greeted, was chairman for the afternoon, and introduced Mr. Winchenbaugh as the club's "father." Mr. Winchenbaugh was president of Boston Rotary for six years and district governor for two years, also. After referring to his experiences in founding the Dutton street organization, he reviewed world Rotary and all its works, declared that few people really knew the responsibilities of Rotaryism and said that it is actually a practical education, regularly and making men of them in the end.

"We must work for higher ideals than just getting a good dinner from week to week," declared the speaker. "We must draw inspiration and to pass along our experiences and suggestions. A good many Rotarians need to get out of the rut. It ought to be easy enough, for you know that we are non-political, non-sectarian and have no racial prejudices, or ought not to have if we are real Rotarians."

"We have disillusioned many people about the workings of Rotary. They used to think we simply got together to obtain a meal and tell each other what good fellows we were. Rotary functions every day along the better lines of education, practical education, education, regularly and making men of them in the end."

The Rotarians advance school tuition expenses from a $25,000 fund and the boys pay it back to the Rotarians after they leave school and go to work—that is, if it is legitimate, if they can't, the Rotarians don't mind at all, but most of the boys make good and the Rotarians win anyhow. Rotarians engaged in this line of work for young Americans contribute each about 10 cents a day

DECLARES WAR ON RUM FLEET

U. S. Orders 3000 Men to Assist in Prevention of Coast Smuggling

First General Order From Washington Since Rum Fleet Appeared Off Coast

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—All coast guard stations today received orders from Washington that as representatives of the treasury department, they were to assist in the prevention of smuggling. This was the first general order issued by the federal government since the rum fleet appeared off the Jersey coast nearly two weeks ago.

According to a coast guard official in this city, the new order will add approximately 3000 men to the prohibition enforcement ranks, in addition to a number of craft adapted for pursuit of rum runners. The force of the new order, it was said, would be to place the coast guard directly, instead of indirectly on the trail of coast smugglers.

The order it was said here, applied to all stations on the Atlantic seaboard the Gulf coast and the Great Lakes. Scarcely had it been made public when the coast guard cutter Manhattan was reported by marine observers to be passing in Sandy Hook with a bootlegger in tow.

SEC. MELLON REPLIES

Stresses Public Misapprehension of Effect of Stock Dividends by Corporations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Public misapprehension of the effect of stock dividends by corporations was stressed today by Secretary Mellon in a reply, transmitted to the senate today, to the resolution of Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, inquiring if income tax penalties had been imposed on 325 corporations which had declared stock dividends totaling $2,148,000 last year.

Secretary Mellon said there was nothing to report at this time because the 1922 income tax returns would not be received by the treasury until next March. He added that the first tax returns, those for 1921, affected by the seven-law prohibiting evasion of taxes by accumulation of corporation surpluses, were received last March, but had not yet been examined because of the accumulation of tax returns for 1917, 1918 and 1919.

Declaring there was much misapprehension regarding the accumulation of corporation surplus, Secretary Mellon's letter said that the law did not tax undistributed profits of an accumulation of surplus, "but put the penalty on accumulation of gains and profits beyond the reasonable needs of the business."

"There is at the same time much confusion," Secretary Mellon added, "as to the relation of the declaration of a stock dividend. In any case where the section (the surtax on improper surplus) applies, the department can proceed with its enforcement quite as well after as before the declaration of a stock dividend. The declaration of a stock dividend does not relieve corporations nor does it indicate that a corporation has accumulated gains or profits beyond the reasonable needs of its business, for the entire amount of the surplus capitalized by the declaration of the stock dividend may be invested in plant, equipment and inventory, or be needed as working capital or it may have been accumulated before the high taxes became effective."

Inasmuch, the receipt of a stock dividend by itself has no effect upon the tax liability of the recipient, since the holders of stock in the corporation after the receipt of a stock dividend has altogether no more than he had before."

In this connection Secretary Mellon quoted the supreme court stock dividend decision which declared that a stock dividend was "merely bookkeeping that does not affect the aggregate assets of the corporation or its outstanding liabilities."

VOSALI NOT GUILTY ON GROUNDS OF INSANITY

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 23.—A directed verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity, was given in the superior court today within an hour after the trial of Ernesto Vosali, charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosalia Galli, had begun.

Vosali, who recently was returned from the Augusta state hospital, where he had been under observation, was guarded by six deputy sheriffs, heavily armed while being taken to the courthouse from the jail. This was done because of the attempt by a crowd to attack him in front of the courthouse when he was arraigned for preliminary hearing.

Vosali was arrested after he had shot the young woman with whom he was infatuated, at the public market on Federal street, near the police headquarters, last August.

STATE SENATE ADOPTS BILL AIMED AT KLAN

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—The state senate today adopted a resolution offered last week by Senator Wellington Wells of Boston expressing "firm opposition to any secret organization whose aims and activities are inimical to the rights and liberties guaranteed to our citizens by the constitutions of the United States and of this commonwealth."

The preamble cited reported that the Ku Klux Klan was extending its activities to this state.

Dry Officers Cut in on Operations of "Biggest Bootlegger in New England"

Driver of Truck Escapes But Officers Hope to Run Down Brains of Ring

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—Prohibition enforcement officers today cut in on the operations of a man who they described as "the biggest bootlegger of straight whiskey in New England." They seized a three-ton truck loaded with 61 cases of liquor, valued at $7000, after it had been driven into a garage in the Mattapan district. The driver escaped but the prohibition agents said they hoped through the transaction that was involved to run down the man who, they said, was the brains of the bootlegging ring in this city and the biggest operator.

TO REMOVE POSSIBILITY OF COAL STRIKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(By the Associated Press) The sub-committee of bituminous coal operators and labor union chiefs considering a new wage agreement to replace that expiring in the tri-state competitive field April 1, reached an agreement today.

The new agreement will be submitted tomorrow to the whole conference for ratification. If this is forthcoming, the possibility of a strike will be definitely removed.

SEIZED JUICE BECOMES WINE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—Pasquale Ottene and Louis Polietto had a load of grapejuice when their truck was seized in Oakland a week ago on suspicion. The federal court ruled today that the juice could not be returned to the defendants as it had become wine since the seizure and would be turned over to prohibition enforcement authorities.

Displaces U. S. as Leading Importer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The United States has lost to England its position as the greatest importer of Costa Rican coffee, according to official Costa Rica statistics received by the department of commerce. Out of a net exportation last year of 17,552,135 kilos, England took approximately 10,725,000 and the United States slightly more than 6,000,000 kilos. In 1921, the United States took more than 50 per cent of the crop.

Subsisted 11 Days on Diet of Beer

GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 23.—Subsisting for 11 days on a diet of beer, three men, half dead from exhaustion were picked up by the Morgan line steamer El Occidente 22½ miles off the Carolina coast Jan. 18. Names of the men were not disclosed. The men, described as Florida fishermen said they were taking liquor from the Bahamas islands to Cuba in a motor boat when their gasoline gave out.

Rob Factory of Goods Worth $5000

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Jan. 23.—Burglars broke into the office of the W. R. Cobb Co., manufacturers of jewelry findings, wrecked the safe and went off with goods valued at between $4000 and $5000. Eyeglass rims and watch cases comprised most of the stolen property. The police this morning found a sectional jimmy and other tools hidden in a yard near the office.

U. S., Japan and Great Britain Agree

TOKIO, Jan. 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Kato replying to an interpellation by Viscount Kato, leader of the Kenseikai or opposition party, declared in the diet today, that while no formal negotiations had occurred, there is an understanding between America, Great Britain and Japan regarding steps to be taken, if the other powers fail to ratify the Washington conference agreements.

12 Armed Men Steal 600 Cases of Whiskey

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Twelve armed liquor thieves raided a West Randolph street building early today, bound and gagged a watchman and a newsboy, drilled through a vault and stole 600 cases of whiskey the police report.

HUGO COMMUNICATED WITH SPIRITS OF PAST

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—Victor Hugo, while an exile on the island of Jersey in 1851, received new inspiration for his later writings by communicating with the spirits of great writers of the past, said Jules Bois, president of the French society for psychical research, in an address here today.

"He conversed in the day with ideas," said the speaker. "At night came the spirits of the dead—Shakespeare, Aeschylus, Moliere, Columbus, Voltaire, Sir Walter Scott, Lord Byron and others, who awakened within him his subconsciousness and super-consciousness, linking him with his immortal ego, and instructing him for a new destiny, and a wider scope."

He said he had received from Hugo's heirs a document which now had been published containing the messages of many of the dead to the great French author.

OPERATION IN EFFORT TO RESTORE SIGHT

PATERSON, N. J., Jan. 23.—Parts of the eyeball of a six months old pig today were grafted on a human eye by Dr. Edward B. Morgan and three assistants in an effort to restore sight to Albert Lemnawicz, 18, blinded in a Fourth of July fireworks explosion.

The operation, which lasted 40 minutes, was performed with the use of only a local anesthetic. Four stitches were made in the human eye.

The result of the operation, it was stated, would be known in 10 days.

UPWARD REVISION OF WAGES ANNOUNCED

MALDEN, Jan. 23.—An upward revision of wages for workers in its factories here was announced today by the U. S. Rubber Co. The amount of the increase was not made public. About 2000 operatives are employed here. This action comes after announcement of an increase to the workers of the footwear branch of the U. S. Rubber Co., at Millville and Woonsocket, R. I., yesterday.

Jack Daw on Icicle Isle. Chapter 12

Jack watched these queer caps until the bus reached almost up to them. Then his attention was turned to a very pretty sleigh which had drawn up to meet them. "All aboard for Frost Town, the Land of the Freczies," announced the sleigh driver. "Hop in and away we go."

Then the bus snow man explained to Jack that he would have to ride the rest of the way in the Frost Town sleigh, and Jack and Flip changed over. Jack then bid the snow man, who had followed him to the mountain top, goodbye, and the Frost Town sleigh started to move along.

It was a rapid trip and several times Jack and Flip nearly bobbed out of their seats. Once, when the sleigh came to the top of a little hill Jack became very scared. They were traveling so fast that he was sure they would leave the ground and turn over

Adventures of The Twins

JACKIE IN DREAMLAND

"READY! BEGIN!" SAID THE MAN AND JACKIE GAVE CAESAR A BANG ON THE NOSE.

Little Jackie jumping Mouse was snoring. He still had on the little red jacket the Brownies had given him and over him were the warm covers that Nancy and Nick had tucked around him when they went with Dusty Coat,
the dwarf sandman, to make Jackie comfortable for the winter.
His house was away under the ground in a nice warm place where Jack Frost couldn't reach him.
Jackie Mouse snored again and turned over. He was dreaming. He was dreaming that he was a kangaroo in a circus and he was very happy.
Suddenly a little tray door under his bed sprang open and the little mouse fell through it like a ripe plum—or more like a ball of yarn out of a sewing basket, his tail trailing after him like a long raveling.
He whizzed around and around, all the time sliding downward through a place like a coal chute, and after a while he landed on something hard.
But he wasn't hurt a bit and sprang up like a bed spring.
Then he saw where he was. In the middle of a big circus tent just as he had dreamed with hundreds of people sitting around in long rows staring at him!
"Oh, horrors!" thought Jackie.
"They'll be setting the cat on me now.
I'll have to run!"
But just then a man in a blue velvet
suit came up and held out his hand.
"How do you do, Mr. Kangaroo!" he said. "We are glad you have come and hope you have had a pleasant journey.
Here are the boxing gloves, and here is the person you are to fight."
Jackie looked down at himself in amazement. Lo and behold, he had grown enormously. He was indeed a kangaroo. Then he looked at his enemy and behold it was Caesar the Cat, blinking his eyes fearfully.
"Ready! Begin!" said the man and Jackie gave Caesar a bang on the nose
that sent him sprawling.
"Score one for Dreamland," said the man. And everybody clapped.
Jackie was happier than ever he had been in his life.
He gave Caesar a "good whalloping"
just as he had always wished to do.
"Dreamland is a fine place," thought he.

Plucking Eyebrows Spoils Looks,
Warns Famous Beauty Expert

MRS. CHARLOTTE FAIRCHILD AND TWO PORTRAITS (LEFT AND RIGHT) OF THE SAME GIRL, SHOWING THE DIFFERENCE IN EX-PRESSION RESULTING FROM PLUCKING THE EYEBROWS

Do you have your eyebrows plucked?
If so, desist, urges Charlotte Fairchild.
"It's the surest way in the world to acquire the hard, inscrutable look of the mandarin," she says.
Mrs. Fairchild, once a portrait painter, more recently a photographer for society and the theatre, is one of the most experienced judges of faces in the country.
"I have photographed almost all the New York debutantes and actresses in recent seasons," she continues, "and since the craze for taking out the natural, graceful line of the eyebrows struck the country, it's been almost impossible to get a good likeness of a woman."
"Rude of 18 and daughters of 60 both display a thin, pencilled line above the eye, quite regardless of the contour of the face."
"Eyebrows were given to humans
for a purpose—to soften the features and shadow the eye. Pluck them and the face looks positively bald."
"Nothing reveals this ugliness quite so clearly as the camera, because it comes out and tells the truth. And there's no way to disguise the peculiar, skinned look that plucking gives."
"Sometimes I try to stimulate the Lord's work with makeup, but purple paint is nothing against the shine on the upper lid."
Operators in New York beauty shops say eyebrow plucking has become so general that practically every woman who gives much attention to her appearance has it done regularly. Older women do it because they think it makes them look youthful, they say, giving a certain questioning, childlike expression. Their juniors do it because their seniors do.

Shapely Feet as Much To Be Desired as Well Kept Hands

MARY CRANSTON

This photograph of Miss Cranston shows to advantage her remarkably tiny and perfectly formed foot. How does yours compare with it? Fill in the coupon on this page and let the Dainty Foot Contest judges decide.

A day or two ago, after persistent urging, we consented to serve as a judge in the Dainty Foot contest now being promulgated and fostered by The Sun with the co-operation of Miss Mary Cranston, a Kelli star shining in Lowell this week in the comedy "Honey-moon House," the Kelli theatre management, Mr. Morse of the Twentieth Century Shoe Store, and Mr. Gilmore of the Bon Marche Co.

It is no easy task for an untutored young man of retiring habits to assume a role which may bring him into rather close relationship with any number of charming young women.

Always it has been our wont to walk along, not with downcast eyes, but with gaze directed straight ahead.

Thousands of pairs of dainty feet probably have passed unnoted and unseen and now we are literally to be thrown among them. At their feet we will have, tape measure in hand, plotting arches and curves, always seeking the smallest and the daintiest. It is a job we do not anticipate, but try to try to away from it!

Beautifully moulded feet over have been the joy of the sculptor and the artist and well costumed feet, silken clad, with neat appearing shoes always have been marks of distinction. A well clothed body often is marred by carelessly shod feet. Shapely feet are to be desired even as well kept hands.

There are women in Lowell, scores upon scores of them, whose feet easily might be models for lasting works of art. In the intensely novel and interesting contest now being conducted opportunity is given for prominence heretofore denied many women who justly are beautiful and beauty is not alone confined to facial features.

Enter the Dainty Foot contest now. Send the accompanying coupon to the Dainty Foot Editor of The Sun. He, with Miss Cranston and other judges, will pass upon its attributes as to size and shapeliness.

For the possessor of the most nearly perfect feet among Lowell women there is a box at Keith's and slippers from the Bon Marche, and for the proud owner of the smallest feet there is a box at Keith's and the pick of lovely shoe models at the Twentieth Century store.

Let no moss grow under your beautiful feet—enter the contest now.

As the result of a hearing before the license commission last night, the permit of John Barzduk, to conduct a pool and billiard parlor at 153 Lakeview avenue, was revoked. It was charged with violating the Vermont act, testimony to that effect being offered by Sgt. Winn, and Officers Aldrich and Drowell.

THE PARK COMMISSION

Supt. Kernan Submits Copies of Estimates for 1923 to Board Members

The topic of discussion at last evening's meeting of the park commission was the 1923 budget. The estimates as submitted by Supt. Kernan amounted to $38,450 as against $33,140.22 spent last year, but after some discussion the board voted to request the council to appropriate a round sum of $33,000 for the year 1923 and the superintendent was instructed to slice off the sum of $5480 from the original estimates.

In the early part of the meeting Royal K. Dexter was given a hearing concerning trees in Wilder street, which it is claimed have been destroyed by escaping gas from the Lowell Gas Light Co.'s main. Mr. Dexter, who is a member of the board, photographed the trees and he insisted that the trees be replaced. Albert P. Flanders of the Lowell Gas Light Co. was present at the hearing and he said the company was willing to meet any claim that may be submitted by abutters, and he also stated the company was ready to reimburse the city for the expense involved in removing the dead trees. The matter was referred to the committee on trees.

Thomas F. Garvey, president of the Centralville Improvement Association, requested the board to lay out a skating rink on land owned by the Merrill-Clark Co. in Lakeview avenue. He said last winter the boys of the west end of the district laid out a miniature rink in the rear of the Greenhills school and good clean sport was derived from it. He believed that a portion of the Lakeview avenue grounds could be banked up with snow for a permanent rink and next year a firm skating rink could be laid out. He said the board would not be requested to fund the rink, as the council of the district has given the association assurances that he would have the rink funded. The board informed Mr. Garvey that everything possible would be done to provide a skating rink for the youngsters of the district.

The next matter taken up was the proposed winter carnival, which was scheduled to be conducted at Port Hill park tomorrow and Friday. It was stated that at the request of the Lowell Automobile association the dates of the event had been postponed until Thursday, Feb. 1, and Friday, Feb. 2. It was announced that the Lowell Automobile association will donate $100 for the success of the carnival, while other donations have been promised as follows: Lowell Ad Club, $50; Rotary club, $50. The chamber of commerce and the South End club have also promised contributions. The board voted to assist in the furnishing of music for the event and plans were also discussed for a knicker parade from Port Hill park to the Auditorium on the last night of the carnival with general dancing in the Auditorium.

The budget for the year 1923 was discussed after Supt. Kernan had furnished each member with a list of the following estimates: General park, $42,000; care of trees, $10,000; playground supervisors, $6000; office, $4250; police officers $2000; bath-house attendants, $1600; comfort station attendants, $1400; auto and trucks, $3500; Auditorium recreation, $1000; broken stone, for kindling, $3000; trees, shrubbery, etc., $1500; playground supplies, $1500; lumber, $200; moving pictures, $1200; tennis back stops, $1200; rebuilding fences, $1000; hardware, tools, etc., $700; bathing suits, laundry, $500; stable expenses, $400; office expenses, $300; animals for zoo, $200, and all other expenses, $2000.

Chairman Wood announced that the G.A.R. men had requested the board to conduct a Lincoln night on the evening of Feb. 12 at the Auditorium and the matter was received favorably by the board. Details for the event will be discussed at a later date.

PROMOTING GOOD WILL

AMONG OPERATIVES

"Production depends upon the efficiency of the individual and this efficiency depends in turn upon the individual's ability and willingness to work," said Stanley Lowell, speaking in Liberty hall last evening on the subject: "What Can We Do to Promote Good Will Among Our Operatives?" It was the first of seven lectures to be given at the meetings of the Lowell Overseers' association, George Stetson was the presiding officer.

The speaker explained the meaning of a "square deal," and pictures industry as a "three-legged table," made up of investors, managers and operators. The investors are not the workers, but are interested, of course, in the success of the organization. The managers are the brains of the organization, must continually watch the markets, know how long to buy materials and watch the labor hours carefully. The most important "leg in the table" is the mass of operators. When these three parts of the table start together, production will go up. Without production, all know what would happen. The speaker declared that Americanization classes and the training schools are proving successful in making men more alert and the individual more able to work. But men will only work when they are treated fairly and squarely. That point Mr. Lowell emphasized strongly.

After the lecture, 15 minutes were spent in answering questions from the audience. A short reception followed. Last night's attendance was very large and the over-seers are pleased with the "opening." It was announced that the next lecture would be held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 6, at 7:30 o'clock. Frank E. Morris, safety engineer of a large insurance company, will speak on "Simple Ways of Getting Hurt." There will also be a movie reel entitled "Why Are We Careless?"

GAVE INTERESTING TALK

Members of Lowell Educational Club Hear Consumers' League Representative

Some of the activities of the Consumers' league—the organization responsible for the slogan: "Do your Christmas shopping early!" and other well known trade advertising phrases that have aided transactions in the world of trade involving producers, distributors and consumers, were explained in an interesting address by Miss Mary C. Wiggin of Boston, who appeared before the members of the Educational club yesterday afternoon at the Central M. E. church. Present day conditions in factories, bakeries and stores in general were also described by the speaker.

After tracing the history of the league and the establishment of "white lists" for all business houses living up to best standards, Miss Wiggin told of numerous instances found here and there where girl employees were not treated humanely. Many of these deplorable conditions, she said, have been remedied.

The speaker advocated more fire escapes on buildings employing women workers. She preferred women inspectors of buildings where women are employed, rather than male inspectors. The league's work to make things easier for women clerks in stores and other parts of trade was described in detail.

Miss Wiggin said that customers make it very hard at times for the salesgirls. Many women patrons are inconsiderate and work on the nerves of the clerks. She described the actions of some women shoppers, who often make life miserable for hard-working salesgirls.

After the talk by the visiting speaker, Mrs. H. J. Maguire, president, announced that Miss Blanche Crenney of the Normal school faculty would be the speaker next Tuesday afternoon.

WINTER CARNIVAL IS POSTPONED

The winter carnival planned for Thursday and Friday of this week has been postponed to the same days next week, so as not to interfere with the attractions offered by Lowell automobile dealers at the Kaslo in connection with their annual show. The matter of postponement was discussed last yesterday afternoon with representatives of the Lowell Ad club, the automobile association and the mayor taking part in the conference.

EUGENE A. FITZGERALD DISTRICT COURT CHANGE

Councillor From Ward Two Presented Purse of Gold
at Banquet

Question of Changing Location of Local Court Discussed at Meeting

Eugene A. Fitzgerald, councillor from Ward 2, was given every incentive to make good in his first political venture last night when a dinner in his honor was given at Marie's restaurant, attended by two score and more of his friends and well-wishers. It was a send-off marked by genuine enthusiasm and prompted by sincere friendship and a desire to see the new councillor progress rapidly in city affairs, not only to his own credit, but to the credit of his district, that has turned out many sterling political leaders in other years.

As one of the happiest features of

EUGENE A. FITZGERALD

The dinner, Councillor Fitzgerald was presented a substantial purse of gold, the gift of his friends and presented for them by Daniel E. Martin, city auditor, who made an admirable toastmaster. Mr. Fitzgerald had real difficulty in expressing his feelings and admitted that while he knew of the presentation never entered his mind. He said he would make every effort to merit the confidence of his friends and would give his best thought to the people of Ward 2, whom he has the honor to represent. "Betterment of the city as a whole, also will be my aim while in office," he added.

Before resuming his seat, Councillor Fitzgerald spoke feelingly of the late Dennis A. Murphy, of the high regard and esteem in which he had been held by the people of his district and said he would make an effort to fill his shoes and give to the ward the same whole-hearted consideration that marked the political life of the former councillor and representative.

Among the speakers called upon by Toastmaster Martin were James J. Gallagher, president of this year's city council; Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan, city solicitor; Joseph P. Donahue, Esq., William A. Wash, president of the Broadway club; Joseph L. Cronin, proprietor of the Mark; Charles Bulfinch, John J. Keefe, a candidate against Mr. Fitzgerald at the last election.

Entertainment was furnished by Edward Donohue, Wesley and Arthur Davey, George Sullivan, Michael Molloy and William Quinn.

The committee who arranged the appreciation dinner was composed of Lawrence McGrath, William Molloy, Michael Kelly, Leo McCarthy, George Swallow, R. Dumfry, D. Shanahan, P. McMahon, William Mahoney, James Hessian and Frank O'Loughlin.

That a suitable site in Paige street or some other central part of the city should be recommended to the county commissioners for the erection of a district court in Lowell, was the suggestion offered by Judge Thomas J. Enright at a special meeting of the members of the Lowell Bar association in the district court house yesterday afternoon. The meeting, which was presided over by Judge John J. Pickman was called for the purpose of discussing new court locations and accommodations for the same in this city. The present quarters in Market street have been in use since 1833 and opinion is practically unanimous that a radical change is needed, and with this end in view, the following committee was appointed to confer with the county commissioners as to ways and means of providing new quarters altogether, removing the present structure in Market street or removing to the Gorham street courthouse; Richard Barbrook Walsh, J. Joseph Hennessey, Max Goldman, Albert S. Howard and Arthur L. Eno.

In opening the meeting, Judge Pickman declared that it was not distinctly a meeting of the bar association, but that it was one of lawyers irrespective of any organization, for the purpose of determining whether the movement for a change to the "courthouse on the hill" be pushed, remain in Market street, or follow the proposition of Councillor Daniel Cosgrove that the old Washington Tavern site be utilized for a district court, central fire station, etc. The chairman explained that the late Judge Hadley always favored a courthouse in Gorham street, and recent visiting judges to this city claimed the Lowell district courthouse, the most modern and antiquated of the 33 visited by them on their tour of inspection. "It is a disgrace to us lawyers," concluded Judge Pickman, "that it was one of lawyers irresponsible to make use of the Gorham street courthouse and its wonderful library."

Edward W. Trull, clerk of court, was called upon for suggestions, and he stated that it was really up to the county commissioners to provide proper and suitable quarters. The present lease on the Market street building expires Sept. 1, he explained, and property is an "eye sore" to everybody. The astonishing growth of business in the local court in the past two years makes it imperative that something be done.

It was moved by Max Goldman, that a committee be appointed to confer with the city council at its next meeting and request an appropriation of a quarter of a million dollars for the erection of a new structure. J. Joseph Hennessey, objected to this because of "the fallacy of results" and "it is absurd," he added, "to ask for that appropriation, as it would mean public hearings and the opinion of various organizations. Besides, the house question belongs to the county commissioners." Mr. Hennessey favored a removal to Gorham street, as he thought such a move would further fraternal spirit among the men employed in the profession.

Ernest B. Barlow, only member of the county commission at the meeting, said it did not seem justifiable that the county commission should erect a new building in the down-town area of Lowell, when there is such a wonderful building available in Gorham street. He agreed that additional facilities are badly needed for the proper conduct of district court work here in Lowell. The meeting adjourned with the appointment of the above-named committee.

ALLEGED SALARY IRREGULARITIES DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

President of Lowell Teachers' Organization Says There is Dissatisfaction Because of Departure From Salary Schedules—Mention of "Inside Organization" Develops Considerable Discussion

The school committee held an adjourned meeting last night for the purpose of discussing budget estimates for 1923, but aside from learning that the estimates approximate $1,331,000, no action was taken.

Practically all the time of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of alleged irregularities in salary schedules as applied to elementary, junior high, vocational, continuation and high school teachers. Miss Caroline A. Downey, president of the Lowell Teachers' organization, came before the committee representing teachers in all groups and said there is dissatisfaction among some teachers because of departures from salary schedule. She said there is a feeling that some junior high school teachers who are doing elementary grade work are receiving the $250 extra compensation allowed those who do high school work.

When Miss Downey spoke of an "inside organization" she stirred up considerable argument. Mr. Bruin wanted to know if this "inside organization" was within the school committee. Mr. Downey said his brother member to withdraw the statement, but Mr. Bruin said he was asking for information only and had made no charge. Miss Downey replied the organization re-

AMERICAN FORCES IN GERMANY LEAVE FOR HOME TODAY

Rhine-Watch Completed, U. S. Troops Begin Homeward Journey—Chancellor Cuno in Brief Message to Maj. Gen. Allen Conveys Compliments of German Government

MERENHOFEN, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press.) The American troops were withdrawn from the Rhine today, ending American military participation in the occupation area. The withdrawal was signified by the hauling in of the Stars and Stripes from the castle of Ehrenbreitstein, which has been the American military headquarters since the beginning of the occupation. Meanwhile the first train with members of the expeditionary force were leaving Coblenz for Antwerp and the children of the transport St. Michel, which will take them back to the United States.

The flag came floating gently down from the staff on the picturesque castle walls overlooking the Rhine as the signal was given for "breaking camp."

It was a day of simple ceremony. Four sergeants, picked from among the veterans of the Seventh machine gun battalion, Third division, who fought at the first battle of the Marne, were accorded the honor of assisting Major General Henry T. Allen in lowering the colors at the last retreat this noon. These non-commissioned officers were

Sergeants Dewey Ritter, Lester Kell, and Charles and Frank Eberly. After completion of the flag ceremony, the order of the day called for the formation of the troops into a column of squads which were to pass in review before Major General Allen and march through the postern gate of the fortress. Descending the hill, the American military headquarters since the beginning of the occupation, crossing the Rhine into Coblenz to pass through the city to the railroad station to entrain for Antwerp and the transport St. Michel.

The first section of the regiment was scheduled to leave the station at 3:45 o'clock, to be followed by the second detachment at 9:30 in the evening. The St. Michel sails Thursday night with the tide.

Women and Children Leave
The women and children of the American contingent on the Rhine started for Antwerp today as the advance guard of the departing forces. A group of 65 wives and children of army officers, escorted by Captain W. G. Purdy, entrained this morning. They were officially designated as an "irregular contingent."

Seventy-six wives and 20 children of non-commissioned officers and privates forming the second "irregular contingent" were also entrained.

LEGIONAIRES OBJECT Commander of Local Post Condemns Action of Alleged Ex-Soldiers

Lowell Post, St. American Legion, through its commander, Joseph A. Molloy, strongly condemns the existing practice of men purporting to be ex-soldiers making house to house canvasses in an attempt to sell small articles and using their former connection with army or navy as means of arousing sympathy.

In a statement given today, Commander Molloy says it is becoming common for such men to come to Lowell from out-of-town, wearing portions of old uniforms and impose upon the generosity of the general public by appealing to their sense of sympathy.

"Practically all of these men are 'out and out fakes,'" declared the commander. "and are commercializing their war records, if they possess any. Lowell post of the Legion does not wish to dictate to the proper authorities who shall and who shall not be given permits to sell articles from house to house, but it does protest vigorously against impositions of this kind."

"If these men really are ex-soldiers and down on their luck," continued Commander Molloy, "the government will care for them and if they are Legion members, any post will be only too glad to extend a helping hand. They do not have to resort to public begging for sustenance."

Commander Molloy concluded his statement by warning householders against patronizing these itinerant salesmen and said if a man's cause is worthy and he cannot secure necessary funds in any other manner, he will be given an identification card by Lowell post to show the worthiness of his case.

$200,000 FOR NEW SYSTEM

Estimates For Wages and Equipment Amount to $672,568.70

$38,000 Asked For New Apparatus and $1000 For Drill Tower

Against expenditures in 1922 of slightly more than $405,000, the fire department this year has presented budget estimates amounting to $672,568.70, or an increase of more than a quarter of a million dollars. The bulk of this increase is represented by $200,000 for the installation of a new fire alarm system, $38,000 for new motor apparatus, $2000 for a new drill tower and $3000 for a new touring car for the chief of the department.

Comparatively few departmental estimates have reached the city auditor, although many more are expected within the next two or three days. The fire department is the only so-called large department whose estimates have been presented.

The estimates of the elections commission total $27,202, or $5000 less than

MAYOR'S DAY AT THE AD CLUB

Many Past and Present Municipal Officials at Weekly Dinner

Mayor Donovan Says Newspaper Advertisement Alone Elected Him to Office

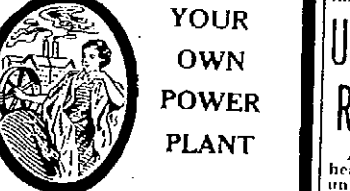

"Lowell will be a better place to live in when we have less advertising of our city government and more advertising of the city in which we live," declared City Solicitor Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan this afternoon before the largest number of members and guests ever assembled at a Lowell Advertising club's weekly dinner.

The solicitor's declaration was vigorously applauded. Mr. O'Sullivan's vibrant admonition, though very brief, delighted members and guests. The solicitor's speech followed a short address of felicitation made by Mayor John J. Donovan, principal guest at today's meeting and who was given a warm reception by members and guests.

It was "Mayors' day" at the weekly dinner and banquet, but "Municipal day" would have been a more appropriate title for the not unexpected appearance of so many past and present municipal officials of various political faiths and records.

The "head table" on the east side of the dining hall, glistened with city regulars. In the center of the political bouquet slightly apart from the galaxy of invited and glad-to-be-there guests, all of whom brought

Radio Photographs

CANARY ON BROADCASTING TOUR

If you happen to hear a fine, clear solo of notes without words, most likely they come from "Music Master," the broadcasting canary. Miss Maybelle Kleinof of Chicago is showing holding the bird, which has already traveled nearly 10,000 miles and given radio concerts from a dozen broadcasting stations. The bird has a record of holding a tone for three minutes without variation.

SCIENTISTS ARE PUZZLED

Many Theories on Static,
But No Way to Cure It

Scientists are trying to solve one overshadowing problem in radio. In their efforts to bring pure enjoyment to the fans. The problem is how to get rid of static. The difficulty is the experimenters actually do not know what they are after. It's some sort of disturbance, they believe, which comes through the radio apparatus and interferes with broadcasted concerts and messages with its clicks, hisses, rumblings and crashings. But what it actually is they haven't been able to tell.

This makes their search for a remedy all the more difficult. If they knew the sources or other causes of these disturbances, they could more easily eliminate this unknown interference they call "static" from radio communication. But there's the rub. There are all sorts of theories and very little fact.

For this reason so-called "static" is known the sources or other causes of these disturbances, they could more easily eliminate this unknown interference they call "static" from radio communication. But there's the rub. There are all sorts of theories and very little fact.

NAVY TALK

Naval operators have a unique way of calling one another, to avoid error. It is the use of a simple word for a letter, as "able" for A, "boy" for B, and so on.

For example, if station SAWP wanted to get 20M, he would flash his call out like this:
"Eight able watch pup calling two cobs mike."

Eliminators already invented have not so far proven themselves practicable. They might have been designed to eliminate one form of static to the exclusion of the others. Which does not help the listener to enjoy his set.

Dr. L. W. Austin, director of the radio research laboratory of the United States navy, attributes the clicking heard in the telephone receivers to rising currents of heated air and to thunder clouds. How static eliminators could be designed to prevent this, or even neutralize its effects, is a mystery.

WOULD NOT TAKE A FORTUNE FOR IT

O'Brien Declares Tanlac Ended 4 Years of Stomach Trouble, Restoring Weight and Strength

"Health is everything, and Tanlac sure did bring mine back. I wouldn't take a fortune for the good this medicine did me," declared James O'Brien, 41 Foot street, New Haven, Conn., valued employee of the Thompson-Stearns Construction Co.

"I was in a terribly run-down condition and suffering from stomach trouble for four years. Nothing I ate seemed to do me any good, my appetite almost left me entirely, and I was gradually losing weight. I was so dull and listless on coming home from work I never felt like doing anything about the house, and I would get up mornings still all tired out.

"But since taking Tanlac things are entirely different. Four bottles gave me such a splendid appetite I can eat anything, have gained ten pounds and feel stronger than ever. A real pleasure out of my work now, and simply can't say too much for Tanlac." Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.

M. T. I. MINSTREL SHOW AT AUDITORIUM

The Mathew Temperance Institute's "Musical Minstrel Whirl," to be presented at the Memorial Auditorium tomorrow evening, is considered by all who have witnessed this final rehearsal the finest amateur production ever attempted in this city. Minstrelsy in its most up-to-date form is combined with excellent musical comedy, and the result is an admirably balanced entertainment program of rare strength.

"Gene" Mullin, Charles Chaney, Charles J. Keyes, Ed. "Tip" Handley and George Sullivan form a quintet of comedians hard to equal. More than the ordinary amount of jocosity is given on these performers for their songs, dances, jokes and comedy, and they may be relied on to take full advantage of their opportunities.

Solos have never been distributed among more competent artists than in this program. Miss Madeline McLaughlin, Miss Sadie Sheehan, Mrs. Stasia (McNamara) Tobin, Edward F. Donahue and Raymond Kelly have established splendid reputations as entertainers. Miss Grace Mearns and Ethel Santos are making their initial bows in the Mathew show, and hereafter will assume positions high in the estimation of the public.

Character songs and specialties promise to be outstanding features. Such favorites as Miss Dorothy Nolan, Misses Lou, Mary and Bertha Dion, Mrs. Alice (Dion) Angell, Miss Mabel Hogan, "Jerry" Longley and Timothy J. McInnes would add prestige to any program individually, and collectively forming a most admirable group. Miss Hogan is the only new comer of the list, and her performance tomorrow evening will acclaim her worthy of her distinguished company.

The large chorus is in excellent shape, and the splendidly trained dancing groups are ready to give a good account of themselves. Effects and costumes will be extremely brilliant and effective. The curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock and a treat is in store for all who are present to view the opening scene.

Director George "Decker" Thurston is satisfied that his company will reflect great credit on his coaching and his reliable assistants. Accompanist Paul J. Angello and Interlocutor John W. Sharkey are ready to lend their best efforts.

Radio research laboratory of the United States navy, attributes the clicking heard in the telephone receivers to rising currents of heated air and to thunder clouds. How static eliminators could be designed to prevent this, or even neutralize its effects, is a mystery.

Rumbling, the most prevalent form of static interference, according to Austin, comes probably from the upper atmosphere as a result of "electrical readjustments." They seem to originate in centres above mountainous areas or above cities with large chimneys that discharge heated gases. But what to do to offset this is yet unknown.

The solution might come soon, if the expressed causes for static were established fact. But they are practically all theoretic. And theories remain first to be proven before relief can be sought.

CONCERT AND DANCE

Gagnon Employees and Others
Have Big Time at the Auditorium

The third annual concert and dance of the Gagnon Employees Mutual Benefit Association was held at the Memorial Auditorium last night and about 1000 people were present and helped to make the affair a success. This dance was originally scheduled for Jan. 8, but was postponed owing to a severe storm.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the orchestra opened the concert with several selections, and Mrs. Nora Regan Longlin then sang "Love 24 hours a day" with the audience that she was compelled to give an encore. Cecil North sang "One Fleeting Hour," with violin obligato by Marietta Brunella.

and then a dancing specialty was put on by Miss Mary Conway. Frederick Cummings then sang "For You Alone," and was followed by Charles Clancy singing the popular and song, "Sophie." The final number on the program was an "Italian Street Song," sung by Frederick Cummings, Clifford Hall, Raymond Kelly and Nora Regan Longlin. Every number was good and the singers were given hearty applause for their efforts.

General dancing began immediately and continued until 11 o'clock intermission, when refreshments were served; following intermission dancing was in order again until 1 o'clock. The committee in charge of the dance was as follows: James Saunders, general manager; Miss Katharine Mack, assistant general manager; Helen Williamson, floor director; Martha Sander, chief aid; and the aids comprised all other members of the association.

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT

Twin Brothers Charged With

Assaulting Mill Workers—

Other Cases

Ernest and Omer Desmarais, whose appearance in the district court this morning resulted from an assault and battery charge preferred against them by Manuel Ferreira, were granted a continuance until Saturday morning when the incomplete hearing will be resumed. This morning's testimony revealed that the two youths, 20-year-old twins, assaulted Ferreira coming from work in the Tremont and Suffolk mills on the evening of Jan. 10. The complainant stated that he was walking peacefully along Suffolk street about 5 o'clock on the above date when Desmarais accosted his wife, who was with him at the time, and threatened to "get" her if she repeated her performance of striking him in the face as she is alleged to have done earlier that day. Whereupon, the husband brushed Omer aside and the struggle began. Ernest then took sides with his brother and, according to the complainant, severe punishment was inflicted by the duo.

The twins pleaded not guilty to the assault, alleging that Ferreira was the first to start hostilities.

Thief of Time

A suspended sentence of two months to the house of correction, imposed some time ago on Israel Goldman, was revoked when he reappeared in the court this morning on charges of drunkenness and larceny of a watch, and he will spend the next 60 days in jail. He pleaded guilty to both complaints. The larceny charge was preferred by George B. Tremblait, who claimed that, while sitting ashes in his yard yesterday morning, defendant came along and stole his "good morning" watch and chain, valued at $100. He followed him into the house. When he left, the watch evidently left with him. The police were notified and the watch recovered in a Middlesex street jewelry store.

Other Offenders

For selling eggs on the Lord's day, James Gagliardi was ordered to pay a fine of $5.

Fortuna Jankos pleaded guilty to illegal keeping and paid a fine of $100. Harvey Desmarais, for failure to appear in answer to a similar complaint, was ordered defaulted.

Capt. Raymond R. Tourtellot, of the 42nd Infantry, commanding the second family group, these contingents are travelling to Antwerp in hospital cars for greater comfort. It was expected that probably a dozen more members would be added to the second group, for a few soldiers who claim to be taking leave of their families will be taken on board the St. Michel. NEW WAGE AGREEMENT Bituminous Coal Operators and Officials of Union Sign New Contract

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press).—Bituminous coal operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America today signed a new wage agreement running for one year and covering the tri-state coal fields of Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. This agreement will be used as a standard for fixing wages and working conditions throughout the rest of the bituminous territory.

The new agreement, it was announced, was virtually the same as that which expires April 1, based on the federal mine administration findings in 1920. Copies were ordered sent immediately to President Harding, Attorney General Daugherty and John Hays Hammond, chairman of the United States coal commission.

THE ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMOBILES

The board of assessors this year will have four channels through which automobiles subject to assessment may be checked. On April 1, return postal cards will be sent to all known automobile owners, asking for a complete description of all machines owned. Notices also will be sent to all garage owners, asking for a list and description of cars housed by them. A third means of checking will be from registration cards forwarded to the assessors by the state tax division and a fourth means will be the sworn statement of personal property owned by all individuals.

The assessors feel that with four such checking devices all automobiles subject to assessment will be found.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow skin, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, heart-aches, a flatness, no-goed feeling, all out of sorts, constipated bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 25c.—Adv.

WORKING IN DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

Two appointments of local interest were recently made by District Attorney Arthur K. Reading, that of Mrs. Hilda Benoit and Leo St. Jean as chief clerk and messenger in the district attorney's office at East Cambridge. The two appointments have assumed their new duties and are well pleased with their work.

Mrs. Benoit was born in this country and received her early education in this city. She completed her classical course at the Mount Notre Dame convent in Sherbrooke, Que. She is a widow and has one daughter. For a number of years she was employed as a clerk in the military department of the A. G. Pollard Co. She is connected with several fraternal organizations and is president of the Nationalization committee of French-speaking women of this city. Her home is at 152 West Street.

Mr. St. Jean is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis St. Jean of Arlington street and is a native of this city. He received his education at St. Joseph's college and also studied at the Lowell Textile school. He is a popular member of the C.M.A.C. and also held the position of secretary of Lodge 654, Machinist Brothers union. Both were very active in the campaign of Mr. Reading in this city.

MOSUL INCIDENT NOT TO HALT CONFERENCE

LAUSANNE, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press).—Spokesmen for the British delegation to the Near East conference announced after a consultation today that they would insist that a clause be inserted in the projected treaty with Turkey to provide that the dispute over the Mosul oil district be referred to the League of Nations for examination and decision.

Meanwhile, it was said, the Mosul incident would not be permitted to interfere with the continuation of the conference nor with the presentation of the allied draft treaty, which is almost completed. Lord Curzon's letter to the League of Nations, which he announced last night he would send as a foreign secretary of the British empire, appears to be temporarily withheld in the hope that the Turks may change their minds and accept his proposal to refer the Mosul problem to the league.

Lord Curzon held a lengthy conference with Mr. Bonaparte and Marquis di Giannini, heads of the French and Italian delegations, respectively, this morning to determine the future procedure.

PRES. HARDING "QUITE ALL RIGHT"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Stormy weather prevented President Harding from going to his office today.

Dr. F. E. Sawyer, the White House physician, reported that the president was "quite all right" and had intended to return to his desk today but had been advised against doing so. It is necessary, to reach the offices from the executive mansion, to walk in the open for about 100 feet. As the weather today was unusually raw, the president decided to remain in his study where he has been transacting routine business for the past two days. He is entirely over his attack of grip.

FEW CASES OF ILLNESS DUE TO TINNED FOODS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 24.—Only three out of 132 cases of illness caused by eating canned food last year were traced to commercially tinned foods, Secretary Frank B. Goss told delegates to the convention of the National Canners association today.

The remaining cases of illness were due to home-preserved foods, he said. These figures he ascribed to Dr. J. C. Geiger of the United States public health service who investigated all such cases.

TO REVISE U. S. COPYRIGHT LAW

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Plans for revision of the United States copyright law to permit this country to join the international copyright union, have been completed at a conference here of the international printing trades unions and the Authors League of America and its various guilds. It was announced today.

Changes in the law have been embodied in a bill which shortly will be presented to congress. A draft of the bill already has been sent to the international union in Berne, Switzerland. It was said.

LEGISLATORS REBUKED FOR COMEDY BILLS

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 24.—Four bills were introduced in the session of the New Hampshire legislature yesterday which resulted in a rebuke by the speaker of the house. ONE WOMAN IN NEXT SESSION OF CONGRESS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—The next session of congress will include a woman, although after the November elections it was indicated that the body would revert to its old time state of complete male representation.

The new feminine member will be Mrs. Mae Ella Nolan, widow of Representative John I. Nolan of the Fifth California district (San Francisco), who was elected yesterday to fill her husband's place in the present congress and also for the next regular term. Mrs. Nolan was victorious over six male opponents, having more than 4000 votes more than the man who ran second.

Congressman Nolan was a labor leader in congress and his widow plans to carry on his work.

There now are three women representatives in congress, the greatest number ever to be seated in that body. Two, Mrs. Winifred Mason Luck of Illinois, serving out the unexpired term of her father, the late William E. Mason, and Miss Alice Robertson of Oklahoma, will retire with adjournment of the present session. Mrs. Luck, however, is a candidate for the unexpired term of Representative James R. The sale, which is one of the largest in relation to residential property that has occurred in Lowell for some time, comprises three double houses, four two-tenement houses and five single houses.

The transfer was made through the office of Edward P. Smith, working in conjunction with T. H. Elliott.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CASE TO BE RETRIED

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—Judge Anderson, of the federal district court today assumed jurisdiction in the Christian Science Publishing society and the board of directors of the mother church contended was one of ecclesiastical government upon which a court of law was not qualified to act.

Mrs. Catherine Allen, the plaintiff, brought suit to restrain the directors from removing her card as a Christian Science practitioner from the advertising columns of the Christian Science Journal, contending that she held a contract for publication for the year 1923. The suit had been dropped, it developed because of criticisms by Mrs. Allen of the church administration. Counsel for the trustees and the directors, in a motion that the suit be dismissed, argued that the question was one of ecclesiastical discipline. Counsel for Mrs. Allen held it merely involved the contractual rights of an advertiser.

Judge Anderson's acceptance of jurisdiction, involved in the refusal of the motion to dismiss the suit, was accompanied by an order that the case be tried on its merits, but no date was set.

ARE WOMEN OVERWORKED?

Yes, hundreds of thousands of them are. This applies to the housewife and mother who struggles on a small income to make both ends meet by doing all the washing, ironing, cooking, making and mending for a large family. There are others who not only support themselves working in factories, shops, stores and offices, but often have an invalid father or mother to support, therefore do housework besides. These are the women who break down early and are afflicted with various forms of female weakness. Ninety-eight out of every 100 women who have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have proved that it is a successful remedy for women's ills. For nearly 50 years it has been restoring women to health, and it will pay every ailing woman to try it.—Adv.

Don't Stay Gray! Here's An Old-time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.

MARRIED IN WASHINGTON Lowell Postmaster Weds Washington Girl—Cong. Rogers at Wedding

A pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Washington, D. C., when Postmaster Xavier A. DeHalle of this city and Miss Virginia Laura White, a popular young woman of Washington, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Fr. Egan. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. William R. White and she was attended by Miss Vina Thomas of Washington, an intimate friend. The best man was Mr. John Andrews of Salem, a classmate of the groom at law school.

Among those in attendance at the wedding was Congressman John Jacob Rogers of this city. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Mrs. Thomas H. Greene in Franklin street. Mr. and Mrs. DeHalle will leave Washington this evening on a honeymoon trip to Ashville, N. C., and after Feb. 1 they will be at home to their friends at 58 Avon street, this city.

The society had more than 215 members last year, and the officers hope to have at least 350 in the chorus this season.

The choral society is to present Reinold Werrenrath, Lowell's favorite male singer, in a concert recital at the Auditorium in April.

LOWELL CHORAL SOCIETY REHEARSAL

Plans for the Lowell Choral society's season were outlined last evening, when the members held their first rehearsal of the new year in one of the halls at the Memorial Auditorium. The president, George S. Draw, told of the society's aspirations under the direction of Eusebius C. Hood, director. There was a most excellent rehearsal of "Aida," Verdi's opera, which is to be presented in the Auditorium some time in May.

ferred to was in the Vocational school and explained that what she knew of it was limited to what one instructor had told her, to the effect that this "inside organization" had decided to seek increases individually after finding they could not get anything through the Teachers' organization.

Discussion brought out the fact that teachers who are doing grade work in a school that has been designated as a junior high are supposed to be preparing by special summer school work, for junior high positions and are given extra compensation for that reason.

Mrs. Pearson said a summer school course would cost a teacher more than the $250 paid her as extra salary. Miss Downey expressed the belief that it was not generally understood by the teachers that this extra money was to cover extra time spent in study and for self-development and thought. If this was understood there would be no dissatisfaction.

Mr. Deane thought the Junior high school teachers should be asked to come before the committee and state their side of the controversy. Mrs. Pearson did not think this was necessary, inasmuch as they have raised no question. The matter went to a vote and was defeated, 5 to 2. Mr. Deane.

OURSELVES AND EUROPE

What will become of Europe? How will this affair between France and Germany wind up? What will be its effect on the rest of Europe or upon the entire world?

These are questions that are perplexing statesmen on both sides of the Atlantic. In some respects the alarm felt is not warranted by the action of France, which is tantamount to that of a sheriff in putting a keeper in a store until his bill is paid. The aim of France is to compel Germany to pay the reparation indemnity fixed by the Versailles treaty and modified or reduced subsequently by the allies in conference; but in spite of all efforts to satisfy Germany she still insists that the smallest amount named, to wit, $12,000,000,000, is too much, although two and a half times less than the sum on which France claims payment. There is good reason to believe that Germany has been willingly evading payment and there was nothing left for France but to use coercion.

If the shoe were on the other foot, so to speak, Germany would have no qualms in forcing France to disgorge. In 1870 when the war was not a circumstance to the great world war, and when Germany suffered very little loss, she promptly seized two provinces of France and exacted a war indemnity much greater for the France of that day than the amount demanded from Germany today.

There is no denying the fact that England and nearly all the other powers are afraid that France might decide to hold the Ruhr permanently, as this would enable her to dominate Europe in the economic sense. England would make war to prevent France attaining such a commanding position.

There is a strong sentiment in Europe in favor of having the United States go over and resume activities there in order to rehabilitate the industries and stabilize the currency systems; but this would be a stupendous task and moreover, to attempt such a thing at this stage when the powers are drilling their armies in order to be ready for another war, would be foolish.

It is said that this is the richest nation on earth, and that she could easily set things right in Europe, even financially, if she tried. If she undertook such a task she would soon find herself in the same position as the man who having money, decides to gamble with men who haven't a cent. No matter who loses, he pays. Uncle Sam doesn't enter that kind of game unless for an overpowering reason.

It is true, the Europeans say we ran away without finishing the war. They say we won the war, but lost the peace. We left the European powers to carry out the conditions of the treaty and they have made an awful mess of it. The question now is asked, what are we going to do about Europe? We really mean to do nothing while the European powers are preparing military armaments. What, then, is our policy toward Europe?

The withdrawal of our troops from the Rhineland district indicates our neutrality until some settlement is reached between Germany and France. It is doubtful if France can gain her point unless she keeps up the fight for the greater part of a year. By that time she might convince Germany that the best thing to do is to pay as much as she can or as well as she can; but Europe could not endure being held on the brow of a precipice for that length of time. Therefore, it is probable that efforts to reach a settlement will be made; and if we can assist in bringing about a satisfactory agreement, then we shall have served the purposes of peace and the economic benefit of Europe.

Senator Borah is out with appeals in behalf of Germany and charging France with militarism and charging the terms of the treaty of Versailles and also an offense against the laws of humanity. That is all tommyrot. Borah knows better. He is playing the part of a demagogue; but he has a big force of pro-German farmers behind him. Nevertheless, unless the republicans are careful and unless President Harding and Secretary Hughes are cautious, they will be drawn into the line of policy thus emanated by Borah in opposition to France. The move for seizure of the Ruhr was predicted. It was fully justified under the treaty and France should remain there until Germany agrees to pay. If France is met with passive resistance that puts a stop to the mining of coal, then Germany which alone is to blame will be the chief sufferer; but she would willingly suffer a coal famine in order to win sympathy and to put France in a false light.

Should the worst happen and European civilization collapse, it would certainly be a serious injury to this country not only at present, but for many years to come. It is plain, therefore, that we should offer our good offices as mediator and do everything possible to bring about an understanding between these two powers whose bitterness towards each other will grow from day to day. Furthermore, the Russian and other European elements in favor of Germany may come to her aid and precipitate another war which, should it come, would probably result as badly as even the most pessimistic prophets have predicted.

If the League of Nations fulfilled its mission, it would stop in and settle this trouble between France and Germany. While England and Italy are in the background, the former is opposed to France and Italy has been with France; but she has relied upon the Ruhr to keep her supplied with coal. Now, it appears, she can't get any coal from

CALL FOR RETRENCHMENT

Mayor Donovan has sent out a call for a policy of retrenchment to be put in force in every department. That does not mean that the departments are to be put on starvation allowance. On the contrary, it means that all necessary work shall be done promptly and well but without extravagance.

Some years ago, the cost of block paving ran up to unprecedented figures, almost to three times the cost at which the work could be done by skilled help under proper direction. The chamber of commerce raised a howl and called for contract labor. There was good reason for criticism of the work done on that particular occasion. It was chiefly the fault of the system then in force. The system has been changed and block paving under the direction of the Public Service board has been done as well as any such paving ever was done in Lowell and the price has not been exorbitant. Mayor Donovan wants this good work continued, and he wants to eliminate the wrangling and the conflict conducted under the former administration often in violation of the civil service laws as the officials thereof have repeatedly stated.

The work done in the Public Service board in the street department last year demonstrates the fact that it can be done as well and as cheaply by city employees as by any other means. City labor in such cases is more reliable than contract labor; and it is gratifying to know that in this particular line of work, there is no reason or justification for criticizing city labor other on the point of price or the quality of its work.

The city council has decided to retain the Public Service board and Mayor Donovan has already nominated Chairman Murphy for a term of three years. There is no doubt whatever that when the proper time comes, the administration will be promptly continued. It is to be hoped that the skill shown in street paving will be displayed equally in other important lines of city work. The street department should eventually do its own concreting so that it will not be dependent upon outside contractors. In all probability better and cheaper sidewalks could be maintained if the city did its own concrete work. This is but one of many steps forward that must be taken in the near future if we are to have any general improvement of our public streets and to have, also, the main thoroughfares leading to our city among the best in the state.

Lowell is moving onward and upward to better things and one of the essential steps in that direction is to make our streets and highways second to none in the state.

STYLES

The latest styles in Parisian gowns resemble the draperies worn by ancient Egyptian mummies, comments Mme. Jeanne Paquin. Her name is on the label of clothing worn by some of our richest women. This is probably today's most interesting news to women readers.

You cannot imagine men going back to the short-skirted garb worn by males in Cleopatra's day? Men wear skirts in many parts of the world, including sections of the Near East. American men would change their fashions as often as the women, if our men were not so extremely self-conscious. In other words, vain. Vanity makes our women dress strangely. It also makes our men dress conservatively, with an almost military standardization.

From Cincinnati comes the news that the International Association of Clothing Designers has given out rather arbitrary changes in the style of men's clothing, including what will be most repulsive to many—a low crowned derby hat with a small red or gray feather. That seems to be the most fantastic change yet proposed.

THE COAL SHORTAGE

From the National Coal commission we learn that the great trouble with the coal business is that we have too many miners and too many mines. To allow the laws of supply and demand to take their course will bring the remedy, we are told. But that will not solve the transportation problem. Is the trouble there, too many railroads, too many men in charge, and, besides, too many cars?

We want some means of compelling delinquents to pay their poll taxes. At present there is a very considerable number who cannot be made to pay. It seems that they either give false names or else they disappear or hide when the collector calls.

If the Street Railway company were required to furnish seats for all its passengers in the rush hours, it would have to more than double the size of the cars or else run about twice as many trips.

It is usually some cult that violates every religion and every principle of justice or honor that tries to impose its tenets upon others.

Those who want a greater Lowell, and who doesn't, will favor Rep. Achin's bill for annexation of territory from the neighboring towns.

It seems that a union of plain American citizens is all that is needed to battle with the Ku Klux Klan.

It seems that a drug on the market is not a drug on the market if it is dope.

North winds are going south for the winter, but will feel much warmer on their way back.

You know how big a clunder in your eye feels? Well, that is how big some men in the public eye feel.

Newsdrift Prisoners

When Charles Leighton of Lunenburg, Mass., was shoveling away a snowdrift in his yard, he was surprised to see two pigeons fly from under his shovel. The two birds had been penned up in the snowdrift under an eave and apparently had been there for two weeks.

Shaving the Deceased

"I've often wondered why they shave a man's head before they put him in the electric chair," said the pessimist. "I hope you'll find out some day," said a listener. "Politely. The pessimist was satisfied."

Pharisee Was Late

A class of boys was undergoing an examination in Scripture. The subject was the Good Samaritan. "And why do you think the Pharisee after looking at him passed by on the other side?" "Because he saw he had been robbed already," was the answer.

The Mad Chauffeur

A visitor was being shown round the asylum. A large room with 29 beds was reached, but the place seemed empty. "This is where the mad chauffeurs are kept," said the attendant. "But where are they?" asked the visitor. "They're all under the beds examining the springs."

Viking Queen's Tomb

What is believed to be the tomb of a Viking queen has been unearthed in Southern Norway. The burial chamber was found supplied with a complete equipment for that future life anticipated by northern paganism, including a furnished kitchen, beds and looms.

Money No Barrier

She wanted to be sure of him, so she asked: "Does the fact that I have money make any difference to you, dear?" Of course it does, my own dear. It is sure a comfort that if I should die you would be provided for. But suppose I should die?" she persisted. "Then," he returned, "I would be provided for."

Nothing Too Good for Him

"Mr. Vanderpool's eldest son is serving on the grand jury, whatever that may be," said Mr. Newbury to his wife. "Is that so?" inquired Mrs. Newbury. "Well, I want you to use all your money and influence if necessary to get out of the jury. It is too good for our son."

A Thought

Let us make ourselves watchmen and guardians of the order of the world. Let us pledge ourselves to service. Let us set ourselves with all our minds and hearts to the bettering of the world, working out of the methods of government, and the ending forever of the kings and emperors and the hands of adventurers. The trustees of the world have betrayed mankind into this morass of hate and blood, in which we founder still.—H. G. Wells.

Spilled the Beans

Hilda liked to play hockey, but had some difficulty in indulging in her favorite sport because every time she slipped away from school the teacher sent a note to her mother. She decided to try to circumvent this embarrassing procedure. She rang up her teachers from her pay station and, disguising her voice as well as she was able, said: "I have rung up to tell you that Hilda will not be at school today." "O. Very well," said the teacher. "Who is this speaking?" To this unexpected question poor Hilda replied: "This is my mother."

Percy's Dilemma

Algernon met Percy, looking very gloomy, walking along the street. "I hear you're engaged to Miss Simpson," Percy said. Algernon, extending his hand, replied: "Yes, that's true." "Hm. Well, old man," continued Percy. "I scarcely know whether to congratulate you or not. I know she's a very attractive girl, but she's got plenty of cash. You'll have to give up theater, you know, and also smoking and drinking. If you marry her, that's all very well," said Percy. "But the point is this—if I don't marry her, I shall have to give up eating."

The Cultured Cop

Little had bought a new car, of which he was very proud. As soon as he knew how to start it up he went down the main street to show off his new possession. Having pursued his erratic course for about 200 yards, he was pulled up by a traffic policeman. "You nearly ran over my car," said the policeman. "Sorry, officer. You see, I've only just got this car, and I don't know how to handle it." "That's all very well," said the policeman. "But the point is this—if I don't marry her, I shall have to give up eating."

Can't Get Better

The auctioneer was endeavoring to dispose of a stock of cigars of which the labels were undoubtedly the best part. White was among the listeners, and having sampled this particularly fine, was not quite in agreement with the auctioneer's recital of their virtues. "Yes," said the auctioneer, waxing eloquent, "these cigars are also very good without equal in this country today. You may go and pay three times the price, but you will never obtain better quality. In short, gentlemen, you can't get better; whatever you do you can't get better." White was unable to restrain himself any longer. "No, you can't get better," he broke in. "I smoked one last week and I haven't recovered yet."

Retrospect

Take the whisper of wind in quiet places. Or the scent of roses in gardens old. The heart looks back, and memory traces. The long lost hours of gray or gold. Fragments of joy, and of keen-edged sorrow. Days bright with the sun, or dimmed with the rain. All that the thoughts of the past may bring. Glimpsed through the cobwebs spun by time. —William H. Hayne in "Scribner's Magazine" for January.

"AD CLUB NIGHT" AT THE OPERA HOUSE

It was "Ad Club Night" at the Lowell Opera House last night and about 125 members of the club occupied the boxes and reserved seats in the orchestra to see the new Luttringer company present "East is West." It was the first opportunity that the management of the theatre had to repay the Ad club for their recommending the company to the people of the city and the members felt amply repaid, for they considered the show as one of the best ever seen here. During the evening they put on a little act of their own which lived up to the occasion. After the final curtain the members congratulated the manager, Mr. Burdett, on the work of the company and on the improvements made to the theatre and wished them a successful season.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The Achievement Club Messenger, official organ of the Middlesex county bureau of agriculture and home economics, contains an item showing that Middlesex county boys and girls won 45 prizes at the Boston Poultry show some time ago. The prizes were distributed as follows: 12 firsts, 12 seconds, 5 thirds, 7 fourths and 6 fifths. The bulletin also states that the town of North Chelmsford has one of the largest club groups in the county, and the girls here are very enthusiastic about their work. They are under the leadership of Mrs. Lilla B. McPherson, whose daughter Marie has been so successful as Canning club leader in the northern section of the county for the past two years. The girls in this club became so interested in canning that they continued to work by lamp-light, there being no electric lights in the town school. There are two clubs in North Chelmsford, one being composed of grammar and one of high school girls.

In Cochituate, Mass., the school authorities have recently established a class in camp cookery to give the boys something to do while the girls receive instruction in sewing. This has led to the inclusion of eight boys in the Bread club in this school under the leadership of competent instructors.

Lowell's automobile show is surely proving a magnet to attracting large crowds to the exhibition building in the Casino. I was surprised Monday evening at the number of women in attendance. In fact, they seemed more interested in the exhibits than the men. The beautiful decorations added greatly to the interest of the show. This year's show is the best ever in this city and a credit to its sponsors, and it is a foregone conclusion that many sales will result.

Inspired, it may be, by Thrift week propaganda, a man in Worthington, Mass. who signs himself "Alvin Lewis Squiggins," has written a letter to Jefferson Davis, president of the confederate states of America, requesting that if convenient he would like to hear something about the payment of a five hundred dollar confederate bond issued by the state of Georgia in 1862. The postmaster at Atlanta, not being able to deliver the letter to the addressee, turned it over to the attorney general of the state, who made it public and gave the country something to smile about. If "Squiggins" actually possesses such a bond, he is not the only one with worthless securities in his strong box. Doubtless there is a good deal of confederate money in existence, and the only use to which we ever heard of its being put was in a story by O. Henry, where it was employed to bribe an official of a Latin American republic who was not up on history and who did not know how the Civil war terminated.

PLAN OBSERVANCE OF 25TH ANNIVERSARY

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the observance of the 25th anniversary of the abolition of Branch St. Andre, A.C.F. to the Artisans Canadian-Francois of Montreal, which will take place Sunday, February 4, held an important meeting last evening and practically completed the program for the day's event, which will be a notable one in the history of local Artisans.

The affair as planned will consist of a solemn high mass of thanksgiving at St. Joseph's church in the morning, a public meeting in Liberty hall, Auditorium in the afternoon and a banquet at the C.M.A.C. assembly hall in the evening.

The solemn high mass will be celebrated at 10:30 o'clock by local clergymen and a special musical program will be rendered by the choir, under the direction of Messieurs Malo, and the program will be delivered by Rev. Monsignor LePailleur of Montreal, Que., chaplain general of the order.

A feature of the afternoon's meeting in Liberty hall will be the joint installation of the officers of Branches St. Andre, St. Joseph, St. Evelyn and St. Marie, which will be conducted by President General Bedard, assisted by Secretary General Roy, both of Montreal. There will be addresses by notable out-of-town guests.

The banquet, which will be for both men and women, will be conducted in the evening in C.M.A.C. hall and although the list of speakers has not yet been completed, the committee in charge hopes to secure the services of notable speakers from New England centers and Canada.

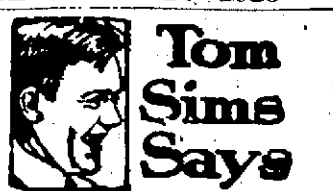

The registration of delegates from the various local branches of the order.

SAFE COASTING PLACES FOR CHILDREN

(Special to The Sun) STATE HOUSE, Jan. 24.—Urking cities and towns to provide safe coasting places for children and commending the police for their vigilance in protecting coasters, Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, today declared that there have been seven less children killed so far this winter than there were last winter.

"The total killed last winter was 11," he says. "Now, however, that the rain has melted away much of the snow, leaving an icy surface on many of our streets, the coasters will likely be more numerous and the speed of their sleds faster."

"Last month three coasters met their deaths by coasting into automobiles and I hope we may keep up the good record of a clear slate thus far maintained for January. A little extra precaution by city and town authorities, providing safe coasting places wherever possible is all that is needed to save the lives of the youngsters and grow-up-uns who desire to coast. As was proved many years ago, when British soldiers tried to prevent our boys from coasting on Boston common, they have an inalienable right to enjoy that healthful, exhilarating sport."

Berton Braley's Daily Poem THE SUPER-SNOBS

They sneer at the obvious always,
With noses up high in the air;
When the shin-bones are cracked on an obvious fact
They will not admit it is there;
They scorn all conventional thinking,
As "pabulum meant for the throng,"
And they simply ignore any commonplace lore
Which proves them extensively wrong.

They were pacifists during the conflict,
Add now that the battles are won,
They sit back and carp in a manner that's sharp
At all that's accomplished and done;
They're proved unrepentable prophets
On what they have said all along,
Yet with undisputed hope they prepare some new dope
Which is just as confoundedly wrong.

Their theories carry them nowhere,
Their formulas function askew,
Yet it irks them indeed that the world will not heed
The things that they tell it to do;
With proud supercilious hauteur,
Their paths philosophic they tread,
And if by strange sooth they encounter the truth
They eat the poor lady quite dead!

voters in that city, provides in detail "Section 1—Chapter 115 of the acts of 1921 is hereby amended by striking out section three and inserting in place thereof the following new sections:

"Section 3—The commission shall during its office hours hold sessions for the registration of voters excepting those limited by the provisions of the general laws. Whenever, in their opinion, public convenience or necessity so requires, the commission may order sessions for the registering of voters to be held in any of the several voting precincts, or at the office of the commission in the city hall, and they may require suitable accommodations and they may further, from time to time, prepare voting lists of the voters in the several voting precincts by streets or by alphabetical order as provided in section 56 of chapter 51 of the general laws. The commission shall at all times maintain suitable records which shall, unless it is otherwise provided by law, be open to public inspection. The election commission shall receive a salary of $2000 or such other salary as the mayor and the city council may by ordinance prescribe.

"Section 4—There is hereby established in the city of Lowell a listing board composed of the chief of police of the city and the board of election commissioners ex-officio. In case of a tie vote or other disagreement in said board, the presiding justice of the district court in Lowell, or in case of his disability, the senior associate justice of the court who is not disqualified, shall, for the purpose of settling the disagreement, or breaking the tie vote, be a member of said board and shall preside and cast the deciding vote.

"Section 5—The listing board shall, within the first seven week days of April in each year, by itself or by police officers, visit every building in the city of Lowell, and, after diligent inquiry, make true lists, arranged by streets, wards and voting precincts, and containing as nearly as the board can ascertain, the name, age, occupation and residence on the first day of April in the preceding year, of every male person, 20 years of age or upward, who is not a pauper in a public institution, residing in the city. The said board shall also inquire as to the residence of the women voters by such male persons, in their order on the street where they are situated, by giving the number or other definite description of every such building so that it can readily be identified, and shall place opposite the number or other description of every such building the name, age and occupation of every such male person residing therein on the first day of April in the current year, and his residence on the first day of April in the preceding year. The board shall also inquire at the residences of the women voters whose names are contained in the list prepared by the election commission, under the provisions of section 27 of chapter 61 of the general laws, and which shall be transmitted by said election commission to the listing board before the first day of April in the current year, whether such women voters are resident therein, and shall thereupon make true lists of the women voters found by them. If in any year the chief of police shall believe it to be impracticable to cause any public agency requiring unusual service from the police force of the city, to complete within the first seven week days of April the lists described in this section, he shall have authority, after giving notice in writing to the listing board, to take such further time for such visitation and transmission, not exceeding ten week days, as he shall deem necessary.

The board shall place in the lists made by it, opposite the name of every such male person or woman voter, the name of the inmate, given as a part of the building or the name and residence of any other person, who gives the information relating to such male person or woman voter. Where such information is given by one person relating to more than one such male person or woman voter residing in one building, this method may be used in said lists under the name of the person giving the information, after his name has once been placed opposite the name of such male person or woman voter first written down as residing in the building.

The applicant is found to have given a true statement he shall be listed.

"Section 9—Every person, male or female, whose name has not been entered in the annual register in accordance with the preceding section shall, in order to be registered as a voter apply in person for registration and prove that he is qualified to register."

The bill also includes the city of Lowell in the sections which provide punishment for violators of the registration laws in Boston, Cambridge and Chelsea.

diene the exceptional ability that has won him an enviable place among the screen stars. There are many dramatic moments which culminate in one of the most thrilling climaxes ever filmed. "The Jilt" is the story of two men and a woman. You'll like it immensely.

Beginning this afternoon the Rialto is running a complete change of program, introducing a double feature production. The opener is "More to Be Pitied Than Scorned," and also Alice Lake, Rosemary Theby and J. Frank Glendon in the leading roles. The other feature is a J. P. McGowan western production, entitled "Hills of Missing Men," also a thrilling episode of "The Timber Queen," a comedy, "The Skipper's Policy," and the Rialto News Review.

Final performances will be given this evening at the new Merrimack Square Theatre of "The Hotentot," the noted racing story starring Douglas MacLean and Andro Bellamy, and "If I Were Queen," with Ethel Clayton in the leading role. This is an exceptionally good bill and hundreds of photography lovers have already found several hours of real entertainment in the list of attractions.

Features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be the latest George Fitzmaurice production, "Kick In," and another big Paramount picture, "A Daughter of Luxury," starring Agnes Ayres.

"Kick In," described as the greatest crook story of the season, is adapted from a noted stage success. It is filled with thrills and dramatic action, and here and there one finds a winding thread of romance. The settings and general production are typical of Fitzmaurice's best work. The featured stars are Betty Compson, Bert Lytell and May McAvoy.

"A Daughter of Luxury," starring beautiful Agnes Ayres, is a lavish story of the daughter of a millionaire who discovers that there exist in life other values besides those of wealth. It's a corking modern social story, affording Miss Ayres an opportunity to do some of her best work.

$3700 in Auto Abandoned by Robbers

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The automobile in which three messengers from the Municipal bank in Brooklyn, were riding when they were held up and robbed of $30,000 by four bandits yesterday, was found today with $3700 in cash which the robbers left behind them in their flight, under a rear seat. Frank Fulco, chauffeur of the bank automobile, was arrested today on a charge of robbery. Elias Ginsburg, assistant manager of the bank, who was one of those held up, made the complaint alleging that Fulco made no attempt to escape when the hold-up was apparent.

BASTROP, La., Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—With no more than a half dozen names on the prospective witness list, the state today was prepared to end the open hearing into the black hooded band activities which culminated in the death of Walt Daniel and T. F. Richard on Aug. 24, according to an announcement by A. C. Coco, attorney general.

The hearing, which convened here Jan. 6, will be concluded after a star witness takes the stand this afternoon. The testimony expected from this witness has been heralded as a "smashing surprise." However, there was no intimation from the attorney general's staff as to what this evidence would be. It was rumored that an important identification might be made.

Orders for the cavalry troop and other militia units stationed here to move to their home stations after the departure of the attorney general and his staff were expected to reach here some time today from Adjutant General Tombs.

Mr. Coco would not issue an official statement today relative to the procedure to be taken by the state in presenting its evidence gathered at the open hearing to the grand jury. It was, however, intimated that as soon as the testimony could be briefed and other preparations made the state would make a formal request that the matter be submitted to the Morehouse parish grand jury.

It was estimated that from three to five weeks would elapse before the state would be ready to take such a step.

Charges of various offenses, from assault to manslaughter, can be pre-

DRINK WATER WHEN KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take Glass of Salts if Your Back Aches or Bladder Troubles You.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. "An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and lousy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog your must relieve them. Like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, also you have backache, side headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

of business, Tuesday, January 23, 1922.

The notice is signed by Arthur R. Sharp, Hamilton company treasurer.

The early come-back of the Hamilton company was assured early in the fall, when preparations were made for putting out new goods and designs. Installation of new machinery was started promptly and space provided for special textile equipment of the kind never before installed in the Hamilton quarters on Jackson street.

During the period of the strike, it was known to both the strikers and to other mill executives generally about the city, that the Hamilton company, far from being "down and out," was prepared with heavy conserved funds to launch into a really brand new field of textile industrial endeavor.

To the surprise of those who thought at first the Hamilton was temporarily in a "bad way" and waiting along rocky channels, the corporation was really very quietly installing several exclusive departments for modern manufacturing needs.

While the renovations were costly, it was decided that the demands of the new textile era called for different and better grades of goods. The call was for new lines never before turned out at the Hamilton plant, and the Hamilton corporation met this demand promptly.

Callin & Co., of New York City, wholesalers, handle the output of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., the Tremont & Suffolk mills and the Appleton company largely. The New York concern has been receiving new named goods all season from the Lowell concern, several lots of large size being entirely new and never before manufactured in Lowell. The lines of the Hamilton company comprise 4-4 bleached shakers and 4-4 solid colors, "Climax," "Camex," "Medora," "Potomac" and "Cumberland."

All of these new Hamilton lines are being shown in a new improved finish, and orders from all over the country through the Callin house have been unusually heavy. The Hamilton "Camex" goods are novel and new also, making the range of novelties complete for 1923.

"Rainbow" and "Sundown" grades in the 4-4 solid colors are also shown in attractive range of the pastel shades.

Considering the activities of the Hamilton mills during the winter and the present output, which is heavy every week, the prospects for future runs are certainly good, in the opinion of textile men.

The Hamilton paid a dollar dividend on its common stock a year ago; since then nothing until this time. It is the general opinion in mill circles that the resumption of the Hamilton dividend reflects the improving situation in cotton goods throughout the north generally.

Sales of Hamilton stocks in very small quantities in stock market circles and investment quarters during the past few weeks have been notable for advancement of several points from each previous sales record. About two months ago, sales were few and far between, at from 78 to 80 and 81 per share. Today the stock is selling usually for 83½ and holders are asking as high as 85½ and 86.

THE AUTOMOBILE SHOW

This is "Appreciation Day"
at the Kasino—Big Crowds
View Exhibit

"Appreciation Day" at the Kasino. Watch the bustling automobile dealers and salesmen prove today their gratefulness for Lowell patrons' staunch support and extension of past favors!

The popularity of the 1923 automobile show at the Kasino is something genuine, something tangible and vital, proof adequate that the coming year is bound to be a winner in the great automotive industry everywhere.

The outpouring of people from far and near to enjoy the wonders on view at the Kasino show indicates the thriving condition of the automobile business today and its future prospects.

Attractive displays of the season's latest cars, exhibited in dignified fashion with capable salesmen on hand to explain every interesting detail of each and every car, provide a most inviting setting for immense gatherings of men and women autoists this week down on Thorndike street.

Today is billed as "Appreciation Day." It is a very important day at the auto week exhibition, too. For the dealers, in selecting Wednesday for "Appreciation Day," believed that it should be set apart to impress upon the public the true value of the automobile, both as an agency of business and pleasure convenience.

And so today, with new souvenir distributions, many added features that will attract and hold attention, and arrangements made for the reception of numerous invited guests coming late this afternoon and this evening from other New England towns and cities to give prominence to the Lowell automobile distributing business as a live institution from top to bottom, the automobile merchants are celebrating "Appreciation Day."

Salesmen Are Busy

Salesmen at the show are keeping pencils and notebooks handy these days. Prospects are more numerous this year, sales are clinched more readily, for the fair contains a presentation of every possible new car that anyone could desire.

Callers for information who want to see an automobile "special" not displayed here are at once escorted to the headquarters sales agencies, where

other new designs and popular models are on display.

In fact, with main attractions going on from 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. daily at the Kasino, each automobile merchant conducts a little show of his own at his individual headquarters, where salesmen are always on hand to welcome visitors and explain the virtues of each car on view in the regular sales quarters.

The attendance last evening was better than on any night during the show of last season—proving once more, auto merchants agree, that there is more genuine interest in the new cars this season than there was last year at this time. Because of the more prosperous conditions of business in general through the land, more people are buying cars this season for the reason that they are beginning to realize more and more what a useful thing a car is to a modern family, no matter whether the family resides in city or country and no matter what the size of the family income is.

A good car adaptable to the family requiring one, is a good purchase if common sense is used when the selection is made. There is a car for every purse at the 1923 Lowell automobile show. One can pay $5000 or $500, as the whim or purse urges. And selecting a good car at the Kasino is a very easy matter, too, for salesmen today have learned their books, and they are better equipped to reveal the real virtues of their favorites than they used to be when cars were looked upon simply as machines, machine-made for machine purposes.

The local auto dealers have been receiving repeated warnings this week from big manufacturers in the middle west and other automobile centers, regarding the shortage of new cars everywhere. Orders must be sent in quickly if they are to be promptly filled.

The manufacturers in a dozen different places have complained that orders are so heavy that deliveries may be slow for some months to come.

Spring Deliveries

Local dealers in almost every case want it emphasized that this would be an excellent time to place orders for spring deliveries, for the output of many automobile factories is so rapidly taken up that tardy buyers may have trouble getting cars on time unless they plan to file their orders early.

The orchestral music at the Kasino is attracting much attention and giving much pleasure each evening. The evening concerts will be continued until Saturday night.

Tomorrow will be known as "Sub-

urban day," arrangements having been made to entertain many old and new friends from surrounding towns. Special features will be given for the visitors from outside Lowell proper, and arrangements made for receptions both at the Kasino and at the automobile salesrooms downtown. All visitors tomorrow are especially invited to make the regular business salesrooms their headquarters while in Lowell on pleasure bent, and arrangements have been made to properly receive and entertain all-comers anxious to visit Lowell and take in the 1923 show.

Dan O'Dea announced today that on Friday—"Governor's day"—J. G. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller will come to Lowell in place of Gov. Channing H. Cox and will deliver a lively address, probably in the evening. Mr. Fuller is internationally known in the automobile world. At this time there will be a program of special interest besides the lieutenant-governor's address and reception, and this is expected to be the highest night of the week in local automobile circles.

THE CADILLAC PEOPLE
PICK GOOD DEALERS

One of the first problems that con-

fronts a business organization which distributes through the trade is the selection of suitable dealers. The Cadillac Motor Car Co. has, from the very beginning, appreciated the importance of this work, and has left no stone unturned to build and maintain a dealer personnel that is second to none in this country.

To the right type of dealer Cadillac presents many unusual advantages not to be found elsewhere. The one big outstanding point is that the dealer is handling a Cadillac, a car noted throughout the world for its wonderful appearance and masterful performance.

Each of the car stands the Cadillac company, strong, efficient and responsible, always ready to help the individual dealer.

Of other things that help to make the lot of the Cadillac dealer a pleasant one is Cadillac's fine reputation which has earned for it the title standard of the world, Cadillac service, sure and dependable, Cadillac courtesy, respect and substantial Cadillac's high resale value, and Cadillac's growth year after year.

depends on them, its future is largely in their hands. Strong mutual ties bind the dealers and the company together in one close-knit organization, and the result is a success that is becoming more marked as time goes on.

"EAST IS WEST" BIC HIT
AT OPERA HOUSE

The great crowds that are surging to the Opera House this week prove that the new stock players are making a great hit with the theatre goers of Lowell. Their first play "East is West" is an exceptionally fine one and pleased every one in the large audience. Seats are selling for all week as well as next week when they will be seen in Geo. M. Cohan's play "The Meanest Man in the World." There will be matinees every day this week except Friday. Seats may also be reserved by calling 251 for reservations or purchased from the Song Shop, the uptown branch of the box office.

Here Is Oakland's New
"Mileage-Basis Plan"

—a Definite Way to Gauge
Motor Car Value!

You've been waiting for this advertisement for one week! But you've been waiting—for a good many years—for the facts contained in this advertisement.

Since the beginning of the automobile industry, you and every other serious-minded buyer have wanted a definite gauge by which to estimate, in advance, the mileage you could reasonably hope to get out of a car because of the quality built into it.

And now—upon the records of ex-

haustive factory, road and laboratory tests—and upon the actual experience of many thousands of owners everywhere—Oakland is so certain of the superior and unequalled quality built into its "Six-44" that it offers you this unusual "Mileage-Basis Plan"!

This plan enables you to determine, with absolute accuracy, the quality of the Oakland Six—the superior quality that is responsible for its superior value—a value quite without equal at Oakland's low list price!

Main Bearings - - - - - 40,000 miles—plus!

Oakland's main crank shaft bearings will function properly for 40,000 miles or more, without adjustment or replacement. This exceptional mileage is due to the use of special, patented, bronze-back bearings, fitted to their places with the precise workmanship and unusually fine machine practice that guards the manufacture of every part of the Oakland Six.

Valves - - - - - 15,000 miles—plus!

Oakland valves will function properly for 15,000 miles or more without need of grinding. Oakland valves owe this uncommon durability to the use of a special steel alloy—the finest substance known for valve material.

Connecting Rod Bearings - - 40,000 miles—plus!

Oakland connecting rod bearings will function properly for 40,000 miles or more. In constructing these bearings Oakland employs the highest grade Babbitt the market affords. Oakland not only uses the highest grade of Babbitt but it employs a special chilling process in pouring that insures a bearing structure of the closest possible grain. Moreover, it binds this Babbitt bearing to the rod with a pure tin binder—a method regarded by engineers as the best that can be employed.

Cylinders, Pistons and Rings - 15,000 miles—plus!

All Oakland 1923 models continue to carry the special written 15,000 mile guarantee against excess oil in the combustion chamber (commonly known as oil pumping). This guarantee is made possible because Oakland cylinders are honed to the smoothness of glass; its pistons are of special aluminum alloy, and its special, two-piece, oil-sealing piston rings are the most efficient used in any engine.

Proof of the high quality of this construction, and of the in-built goodness of the Oakland engine, is found in the fact that out of the many thousands built and sold last year—It cost Oakland but a fraction of a cent per car to make good the unusual written engine-performance guarantee.

Gasoline Mileage - - - - - 20 to 25 miles!

Oakland cars will average, in daily use, from 20 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline. This unusual economy is the result of Oakland's new carburetion system with its automatic heat control—together with the correct design of its remarkable engine.

Tires - - - - - 15,000 to 25,000 miles!

Because of the perfect balance of the Oakland car, and its liberal-sized tires—Oaklands regularly average from 15,000 to 25,000 miles per set of tires.

Transmission, Axles, Frame, etc. - Life of the Car!

Oakland transmissions, front and rear axles, frames, steering gears, bodies and other major parts, are so sturdily built of high quality materials that they invariably endure for the life of the car.

The figures above (which are in all instances minimum figures) cover the essential parts of an automobile. They offer complete and convincing proof that Oakland has a composite automobile—so correctly designed and so strongly and sturdily built that it will give long-enduring and satisfying service.

Confident of the superior high quality built into every part of the Oakland Six, this remarkable "Mileage-Basis Plan"—the only true way to judge motor car value—is frankly and fearlessly offered by Oakland—a permanent division of General Motors Corporation.

If she will hold the road, when all about you
The other jobs are bouncing high and wide;
If she will swing ahead when you step on her,
With speed enough and some to spare besides;
If she will climb the hills, both big and bigger,
And never stagger, hesitate, nor skip;
If she goes at her work for you each morning
And stands the gaff all day without a yip;
If she rides like a "Pullman Palace Sleeper," Upholstery and springs good as the best;
If she yields mileage high on oil and fuel;
(These Gasoline Hogs always were a pest)
If you can drive long hours and not be weary,
But feel that driving her is merely fun,
Yours is a CAR—and if she fills this measure,
The chances are she'll be a N A S H, my son.

GERMAN NOTES MADE PUBLIC

Protest Alleged Terrorizing
"Measures" Against Ger-
man Officials in Ruhr

Attempt to Force Germans to Aid in Execution of "Illegal
Measures"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The German government in two notes handed
to the French, British and Belgian
governments has protested against alleged "terrorizing measures" against German officials to force their assistance in the execution of "illegal measures" in connection with the French and Belgian occupation of the Ruhr,
and declared ordinances of the inter-
allied Rhineland commission covering
the occupation to have "no legal
value."

Both notes, the one relating to ordinances of the Rhineland commission,
also being addressed to the Italian
government, were made public here
last night by the German embassy.
The note protesting against the expulsion from occupied territory of German officials, who, complying with
"legitimate instructions" from their
government, refuse "to render assistance in the execution of ordinances issued contrary to treaties and to inter-

national law," declared such steps "obviously aim at intimidating the other
officials." "The expulsions," it says,
"take place with utter disregard and
brutality," with a time limit of only
a few hours granted "in most cases"
and members of the expelled officials
families included in the orders.

The note delivered to the four pow-
ers contends that in the occupied territory "German sovereignty" is merely restored by the Rhineland convention, and that "no measures on the
part of the allies are admissible which
exceed the stipulations of the said
convention." "These bounds," the note
declares, are "transgressed by every
one of the ordinances issued" by the
inter-allied Rhineland commission January 12 and 13 covering the occupation, and it describes as an "incredible infringement" the "order given to German
officials and authorities to take an active part in executing" the purposes
of the occupying forces.

The note contends, that, in issuing
the ordinances, the commission "has
abandoned the legal basis on which it
was founded."
"By violating in the gravest manner
the administrative and financial sovereignty of Germany and, in particular,
of the German territories concerned,"
it states, "the Rhineland commission
has put itself at the disposal of the military authorities at a present undertaken by the French and Belgian
governments in defiance of international law and of the treaty of Versailles. Even in time of war, it is entirely illegal to force the home authorities of the occupied territory to
take part in the execution of measures
aiming at their own government."
Therefore, the German government and the governments of the various German states have pointed out to
their officials that those ordinances
which are in contradiction with the French Occupation Authori-

ESSEN, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press) It was stated here today that
the total number of industrial workers
and miners now on strike approxi-
mated 200,000, in addition to the personnel at the railroad stations which
are occupied by troops.

If the French court-martial passes
sentence on the mine directors at May-
ence, it is declared that 550,000 miners
will consider strike action.
The workers who have already left
their jobs include 100,000 miners from
the Stinnes pits and 55,000 steel workers from the Thyssen plants.
The mines owned by the Thyssen
interests, employing 50,000 men have
not yet ceased to operate. All the state mines are working as well.

German quarters heard today that
the French occupation authorities have
given a Catholic priest of this city
15,000,000 marks with which to buy
food for poor children.
It is announced 500 cases of food,
valued at 75,000,000 marks, are being
shipped here from the central relief
committee in New York city.
The Ruhr coal miners today received
a wage increase of about 50 per cent
over the January scale, effective Feb.
1. The extra allowance for the increased cost of living will be almost
doubled.

sociated Press) The strike of railway
workers at the station here ended late

Rhineland convention have no legal value and are not to be complied with."

"The German government," it says,
"has never intended or stated it would
refuse delivery of the coal necessary
for the occupation forces. In reality,
the ordinance issued merely aims, with
a view of furthering the Ruhr enterprise, to render possible under protection of military law, the activities
in the occupied Rhineland territory of
the organ established at Essen in violation of the treaty."

The other ordinances, which do not
even contain an attempt to justify
their existence by stipulation of the Rhineland convention, aim at depriving the owners, i. e., the German republic, the German states and municipalities, of receipts to the benefit of the respective allied powers.

The subordination thereby ordered of German authorities and officials under the immediate command of the inter-allied Rhineland commission, as well as prohibiting them to receive instructions from German authorities in unoccupied Germany, contravenes

GERMANY READY TO NEGOTIATE

Prepared to Meet and Discuss

Reasonable Solution of Reparations Question

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press) Renunciation of the policy
of sanctions and pledges by Germany's creditors is essential to any successful reparations negotiations, in the opinion of the German government as set forth in a semi-official statement. Germany should also be allowed to develop freely her own plans for solving
the problem and should be permitted
to discuss them "on an equal footing
with her opponents," the statement asserts.

Taking note of what are termed various external attempts to end the Ruhr occupation, the statement declares that "Germany, as ever, is ready
to negotiate for a reasonable solution
of the reparations question," and adds
that "for technical reasons" such negotiations are impossible while French and Belgian troops have such a foot-
hold in the Ruhr.

Sentiment against France and Belgium, which has resulted in a virtual boycott of anything involving of those countries, so far has not forced the French and Belgian members of the

inter-allied control commission to
leave their hotel here, although the Munich commissioners have left that
city for Mayence.

THE CHALMERS

A Car Representing Highest
Ideals in Body Design

The Chalmers coach which is being
exhibited at the Auto Show by Henry
A. Bissoneau of the Cheever street
garage, is sure to attract more than
the ordinary amount of attention, for
just simply to see these cars is to
realize that they represent the highest ideals in body design and equipment.

In speaking of the New Chalmers
Six, Mr. Bissoneau says:

"To see these new cars is to realize
that they represent the highest ideals
in body design and equipment. To us
"From the new fenders, top and
radiator down to such small details
as floor lights, which work automatically with the opening of the doors,
the cars give every evidence of the
most careful and modern practices in
building. In fact, they show many
touches of 'custom-building'."

"To ride in them, even for a short distance, is sufficient to mark the silent, powerful, smooth-running motor
and the genuine riding comfort found
in the long springs and the deep up-
holstery. Many people have come to us
expecting, because of the price which
the new series bears, to see a small,
light 'six.' They have been just as amazed as we were to find that it is
a full-size, powerful car, with all the
qualities one expects to find in a high-
priced automobile."

that they refused to obey the orders
of the French control commission.

Dr. Frederick Grimm, the Essen lawyer retained by Herr Thyssen, was assisted by Counsellors Waldeck of Essen, Alfred Friedman and Herr Neumann of Mayence, and H. Leclerc of Nancy, the French attorney assigned by the French
army as technical adviser to the Germans.

Colonel Debeugnot, the ranking prosecutor, in opening court cautioned the spectators to refrain from demonstrations.

The trial began immediately upon
the arrival of Herr Thyssen, Kestner, Wunderhoefer, Tengelmann, Olfe and Spindler.

"The charge was read and Mr. Grimm
began his argument to establish the illegality of the arrests and the trial.
He concluded with a demand that the
court declare itself incompetent, basing
his argument on the Hague conventions of 1892 and 1907, as well as the Rhineland convention."

Captain Bodin, the prosecutor, replied, and the court, after consulting
in private for 15 minutes, declared its competency and ordered the trial to proceed.

Herr Thyssen was the first prisoner
to be questioned. He admitted having refused on January 18 at Drenley, to obey an order given by the occupation
authorities for the delivery of coal.

"I am a German, and my duty com-
pels me to obey the orders of my country and to serve my country," he said.
"The entry of troops into the Ruhr
was not justified by anything. That is why I will remain faithful to my fatherland."

In the suggestion of the French
technical adviser as a means of sim-
plifying the procedure, Herr Thyssen
then told the circumstances under
which the French had summoned the
industrial leaders to a meeting, which
he did not attend, at which the French insisted them to obey orders, and his subsequent announcement that he
must obey the German authorities.
Herr Thyssen told how the industrial
leaders informed M. Coste, head of the French inspector general of mines,
that they would supply coal if paid
for it, provided the German government did not order otherwise, and how
orders were given afterward to the
mines to continue delivering coal, but
that the Berlin government tele-
graphed instructions not to deliver
coal, the industrialists then informing
M. Coste that they must obey their government.

The five other prisoners gave their assent to Herr Thyssen's statement.

The prosecution called Lieutenant
Portier of the gendarmerie, who testified to the refusal to obey orders to deliver coal.

Would Take Father's Place
The 30-year-old son of Herr Wugen-tenhoefer, who appeared in place of his father, testified that the elder Wugen-tenhoefer was ill. He asked permission to take his father's place as a defendant. The testimony submitted for the father showed that his mines had sent out 20 tons of coal to France and Belgium on January 1, and the son
added that he had sent 242 tons to the same countries. Five other witnesses supported the testimony that
the industrialists had really delivered
some coal until the morning of January 15.

Prosecutor Bodin in summing up referred to Article 42 of the annex to

"The Hague convention of 1907 which
says:

"Territory is considered occupied
when it is actually placed under the authority of the hostile army." He contended such a condition existed in
the present case.

Captain Bodin also cited article 12 of
the same convention, reading:

"The authority of the legitimate
power having, in effect, passed into the hands of the occupant, the latter shall
take all the measures in his power to
restore and insure, as far as possible,
public order and safety, while respecting, unless absolutely prevented, the
laws in force in the country."

The prosecutor contended the Fran-
co-Belgian forces had complied with
this article.

Captain Bodin likewise cited articles
2 and 9 of General De Gouttes regulations of January 11, and provisions
of the French penal code and military
code. He demanded that the court im-
pose sentence, but said he appreciated
the defendant's motives and was inclined to leniency, referring to the invasion in General De Gouttes's regulations for the imposition of a fine.

The president of the court ordered
an adjournment until 1.45 p. m. Dr.
Grimm, for the defendants asked that
the adjournment be until 4 p. m. This was refused. At Le Clerc, French attorney for the Germans suggested 2.31
o'clock, stating that the defense was awaiting an attorney from Paris. The court granted this request.

The chamber of the court of justice
where the trial was held was packed
to overflowing. Journalists representing newspapers in all parts of the
world took up most of the room.
French troops stood guard inside and outside the court.

Chapter 12

Jack watched these queer caps until the bus reached almost up to them. Then his attention was turned to a very pretty sleigh which had drawn up to meet them. "All aboard for Frost Town, the Land of the Freezies," announced the sleigh driver. "Hop in and away we go."

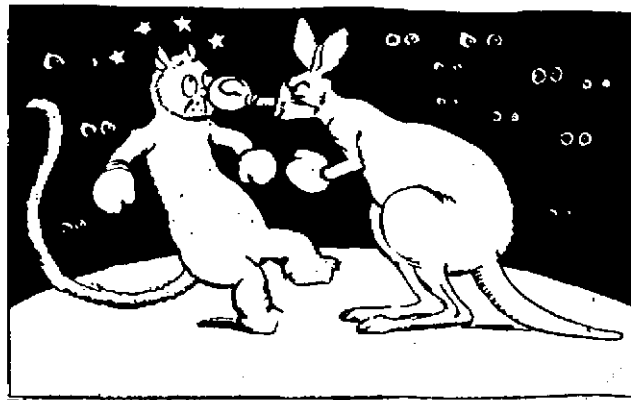

Then the bus snow man explained to Jack that he would have to ride the rest of the way in the Frost Town sleigh, and Jack and Flip changed over. Jack then bid the snow man, who had followed him to the mountain top, goodbye, and the Frost Town sleigh started to move along.

It was a rapid trip and several times Jack and Flip nearly bobbed out of their seats. Once, when the sleigh came to the top of a little hill Jack became very scared. They were traveling so fast that he was sure they would leave the ground and turn over in a heap. (Continued.)

JACKIE IN DREAMLAND

"READY! BEGIN!" SAID THE MAN AND JACKIE GAVE CAESAR A BANG ON THE NOSE.

Little Jackie jumping mouse was snoring. He still had on the little red jacket the Brownies had given him and over him were the warm covers that Nappy and Nick had tucked around him when they went with Dusty Count, the dwarf handman, to make Jackie comfortable for the winter. His house was away under the ground in a nice warm place where Jack Frost couldn't reach him. Jackie Mouse snored again and turned over. He was dreaming. He was dreaming that he was a kangaroo in a circus and he was very happy. Suddenly a little trap door under his head sprang open and the little mouse fell through it like a ripe plum—or more like a ball of yarn out of a sewing basket, his tail trailing after him like a long raveling. He whizzed around and around, all the time sliding downward through a place like a coal chute, and after a while he landed on something hard. But he wasn't hurt a bit and sprang up like a bed spring. Then he saw where he was. In the middle of a big circus tent just as he had dreamed with hundreds of people sitting around in long rows staring at him!

"Oh, horrors!" thought Jackie. "They'll be setting the cat on me now. I'll have to run!" But just then a man in a blue velvet suit came up and held out his hand. "How do you do, Mr. Kangaroo?" he said. "We are glad you have come and hope you have had a pleasant journey. Here are the boxing gloves, and here is the person you are to fight." Jackie looked down at himself in amazement. Lo and behold, he had grown enormously. He was indeed a kangaroo. Then he looked at his enemy and beheld it was Caesar the Cat, blinking his eyes fearfully. "Ready! Begin!" said the man and Jackie gave Caesar a bang on the nose that sent him sprawling. "Score one for Dreamland," said the man. And everything clapped. Jackie was happier than ever he had been in his life. He gave Caesar a good walloping just as he had always wished to do. "Dreamland is a fine place," thought he. (TO BE CONTINUED) (Copyright, 1922, The Lowell Sun)

Thousands Seek to Enlist in Germany

MUNSTER, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Recent erroneous reports that the German army was being enlarged caused "hundreds, probably thousands" of laborers to quit their work and come here to enlist in the Reichswehr, says an official statement issued here. Branding as absolutely false, the report that the Reichswehr was to be strengthened, the statement adds that this organization has no intention of adding a single man to the strength permitted by the peace treaty.

May Become Governor of Porto Rico

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Major General Clarence R. Edwards, retired, has been under consideration for appointment as governor of Porto Rico, in the event E. Mont Reilly, the present incumbent, should resign, but no decision has been reached, inasmuch as Mr. Reilly has not disclosed any intention of retiring despite persistent reports that he intended to do so.

Woman Trussed to Chair and Robbed

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 24.—A baker calling at the home of Mrs. Carmeline Discone in East Cambridge today found her trussed to a chair and gagged. She said she had been overpowered by a man who said he was a gas inspector, and then robbed of the family savings of $355 by him and by two other men.

Pauline Frederick Loses in Will Contest

NORWICH, Conn., Jan. 24.—A jury in the superior court here today upheld the will of Richard O. Libby in an action brought by his daughter, Pauline Frederick, actress, who had appealed from the probate court decision. In the will Mr. Libby left his $30,000 estate to relatives of his second wife. Referring to his daughter, the will said: "I give and devise to my daughter, Pauline Beatrice Rutherford, nothing, and I mention this omission to show that the same is intentional and not a mistake."

Polish Troops Mobilize Along Frontier

MOSCOW, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Reports from Germany indicating mobilization of Polish troops along the German frontier have been received here. The government has adopted a policy of watchful waiting pending actual developments. It is understood that Russia is taking all measures necessary to guard her Polish frontier against attack.

Troupe Prevented From Giving Act

PARIS, Jan. 24.—A German gymnastic troupe was prevented from appearing last night at the Olympia Music hall by a demonstration of unemployed French performers who rushed to the stage and informed the audience that the next number was to be offered by German actors. A police squad was summoned and the stage was cleared. The performance proceeded but the Germans did not give their act.

RUSSIA MUST WATCH OUT

Pres. Kalinin Urges Strong Army and Navy in Addressing Communists

MOSCOW, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Russia must be prepared and carefully watch the attitude of the world powers toward her at the present time, said M. Kalinin, president of the All-Russian central executive committee in addressing thousands of young communists at a mass meeting here yesterday.

"The attack upon Germany is likewise an attack on the laboring masses," he declared. "I must also mention the enemy being shown us by England, who has demanded from Turkey at Lausanne free passage for British warships through the straits. This is also directed against Russia, because it strengthens the elements of war of our enemies."

This clearly indicates that Russia must have a strong army and a strong navy, President Kalinin said. M. Kalinsky, who recently returned from Lausanne, spoke along similar lines. The meeting inaugurated a week's campaign in behalf of the soviet navy.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON NORBECK BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The bill of Senator Norbeck, republican, South Dakota, proposing an appropriation of $250,000 to furnish credits in Europe for purchase of American agricultural products was reported favorably today by the senate agricultural committee.

The committee vote was unanimous and Senator Norbeck was authorized to offer his bill as a rider to any measure before the senate upon which it appeared action might be secured. It was expected that the bill would be offered to the administration shipping bill.

Under the Norbeck bill, which several farm organizations have endorsed, the government would provide the war finance corporation with a revolving fund of $250,000,000 to loan to European buyers, upon security to be accepted by the corporation to enable them to buy American agricultural products.

EXPORTS OF RAW COTTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—American exports of raw cotton including lint during 1922 were 6,113,513 bales, valued at $673,249,613 compared with 6,474,406 bales valued at $684,211,736 in 1921.

Exports of cotton cloths for 1922 were 537,760,535 square yards valued at $85,322,912. In 1921 the value of cotton cloths exported was $71,578,875, but commerce department records do not show the exact quantity exported during that year since in 1922 for the first time the total was kept in square yards.

Shapely Feet as Much To Be Desired as Well Kept Hands

MARY CRANSTON

This photograph of Miss Cranston shows to advantage her remarkably tiny and perfectly formed foot. How does yours compare with it? Fill in the coupon on this page and let the Dainty Foot Contest judges decide.

A day or two ago, after persistent urging, we consented to serve as a judge in the Dainty Foot contest now being promulgated and fostered by The Sun with the co-operation of Miss Mary Cranston, a Keith star shining in Lowell this week in the comedy skit, "Honeycomb House," the Keith theatre management, Mr. Morse of the Twentieth Century Shoe Store, and Mr. Gifford of the Bon Marche Co.

It is no easy task for an untutored young man of retiring habits to assume a role which may bring him into rather close relationship with a number of charming young women. Always it has been our want to walk along, not with downcast eyes, but with gaze directed straight ahead. Thousands of pairs of dainty feet probably have passed unnoticed and unseen among them. At their feet we will bow, tape measure in hand, seeking arches and curves, always seeking the smallest and the daintiest. It is a job we do not anticipate, but try to pay us away from it! Beautifully moulded feet ever have been the joy of the sculptor and the artist and well costumed feet, shapely clad, with neat appearing shoes always have been marks of distinction. A well clothed body often is mirrored by carefully shod feet. Shapely feet are to be desired even as well kept hands. There are women in Lowell, scores upon scores of them, whose feet easily might be models for lasting works of art. In the intensely novel and interesting contest now being conducted opportunity is given for prominence heretofore denied many women who justly are beautiful and beauty is not alone confined to facial features.

Enter the Dainty Foot contest now. Send the accompanying coupon to the Dainty Foot Editor of The Sun, 110, with Miss Cranston and other judges, will pass upon its attributes as to size and shapeliness.

For the possessor of the most nearly perfect feet among Lowell women there is a box at Keith's and slippers from the Bon Marche, and for the proud owner of the smallest feet there is a box at Keith's and the pick of lovely shoe models at the Twentieth Century store.

Let no moss grow under your beautiful feet—enter the contest now.

As the result of a hearing before the license commission last night, the permit of John Bardzik, to conduct a pool and billiard parlor at 163 Lakeview avenue, was revoked. He was charged with violating the Volstead act, testimony to that effect being offered by Sergt. Winn, and Officers Aulrich and Dreyer.

THE PARK COMMISSION PROMOTING GOOD WILL AMONG OPERATIVES

Supt. Kernan Submits Copies of Estimates for 1923 to Board Members

The topic of discussion at last evening's meeting of the park commission was the 1923 budget. The estimates as submitted by Supt. Kernan amounted to $85,450 as against $33,142.02 spent last year, but after some discussion the board voted to request the council to appropriate a round sum of $53,000 for the year 1923 and the superintendent was instructed to slice off the sum of $24,450 from the original estimates.

In the early part of the meeting Royal K. Dexter was given a hearing concerning trees in Wilder street, which it is claimed have been destroyed by escaping gas from the Lowell Gas Light Co's main. Mr. Dexter showed the members of the board photographs of the dead trees and he insisted that the trees be replaced. Albert P. Flanders of the Lowell Gas Light Co. was present at the hearing and he said the company was willing to meet any claim that may be submitted by the board, and he also stated the company was ready to reimburse the city for the expense involved in removing the dead trees. The matter was referred to the committee on trees.

Thomas F. Garvey, president of the Centralville Improvement association, requested the board to lay out a skating rink on land owned by the Merrimack Mfg. Co. in Lakeview avenue. He said last winter the boys of the west end of the district laid out a miniature rink in the rear of the Greenhalge school and good clean sport was derived from it. He believed that a portion of the Lakeview avenue grounds could be banked up with snow for a rink this winter and next year a permanent rink could be laid out. He said the board would not be requested to flood the rink, as the council of the district has given the association assurances that he would have the rink flooded. The board informed Mr. Garvey that everything possible would be done to provide a skating rink for the youngsters of the district.

The next matter taken up was the proposed winter carnival, which was scheduled to be conducted at Fort Hill park tomorrow and Friday. It was stated that at the request of the Lowell Automobile association the dates of the event had been postponed until Thursday, Feb. 1, and Friday, Feb. 2. It was announced that the Lowell Automobile association will donate $100 for the success of the carnival, while other donations have been promised as follows: Lowell Ad club, $50; Rotary club, $50. The chamber of commerce and the South End club have also promised contributions. The board voted to assist in the furnishing of music for the event and plans were also discussed for a knicker parade from Fort Hill park to the Auditorium on the last night of the carnival with general dancing in the Auditorium.

The budget for the year 1923 was discussed after Supt. Kernan had furnished each member with a list of the following estimates: General parks, $12,000; care of trees, $10,000; playground supervisors, $5,000; office, $4,250; police officers $2,000; bath-house attendants, $1,500; comfort station attendants, $1,000; auto and truck, $550; Auditorium, $1,000; trees, $1,000; broken stone, tar binder, $2,000; trees, shrubbery, etc., $1,500; playground supplies, $1,500; lumber, $200; moving pictures, $1,200; tennis back stops, $1,200; rebuilding fences, $1,000; hardware, tools, etc., $700; bathing facilities, laundry, $500; office expenses, $100; office expenses, $200; animals for zoo, $200, and all other expenses, $2,000.

Chairman Weed announced that the G.A.R. men had requested the board to conduct a Lincoln night on the evening of Feb. 12 at the Auditorium and the matter was received favorably by the board. Details for the event will be discussed at a later date.

PROMOTING GOOD WILL AMONG OPERATIVES

"Production depends upon the efficiency of the individual and this efficiency depends in turn upon the individual's ability and willingness to work," said Stanley Llewellyn, speaking in Liberty hall last evening on the subject: "What Can We Do to Promote Good Will Among Operatives?" It was the first of seven lectures to be given at the meetings of the Lowell Overseers' association. George Stetson was the presiding officer.

The speaker explained the meaning of "the square deal" and pictures industry as a "three-legged table" made up of investors, managers and operators. The investors are not the workers, but are interested, of course, in the success of the organization. The managers are the brains of the organization, must continually watch the markets, know how long to buy materials and watch the laborers carefully. The most important "leg in the table" is the mass of operators. When these three parts of the table start together, production will go up. Without production, all know what would happen. The speaker declared that Americanization classes and the training schools are proving successful in making minds more alert and the individual more able to work. But men will only work when they are treated fairly and squarely. That point Mr. Llewellyn emphasized strongly.

After the lecture, 15 minutes were spent in answering questions from the audience. A short reception followed. Last night's attendance was very large and the speakers are pleased with the "response." It was announced that the next lecture would be held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 6, at 7.30 o'clock. Frank E. Morris, safety engineer of a large insurance company, will speak on "Simple Ways of Getting Hurt." There will also be a movie reel entitled "Why Are We Careless?"

GAVE INTERESTING TALK

Some of the activities of the Consumers' league the organization responsible for the slogan: "Do your Christmas shopping early!" and other well known trade advertising phrases that have aided transactions in the world of trade involving producers, distributors and consumers, were explained in an interesting address by Miss Mary G. Wiggin of Boston, who appeared before the members of the Educational club yesterday afternoon at the Central M. E. church. Present day conditions in factories, batteries and stores in general were also described by the speaker.

After tracing the history of the league and the establishment of "white lists" for all business houses living up to best standards, Miss Wiggin told of numerous instances found here and there where girl employees were not treated humanely. Many of these deplorable conditions, she said, have been remedied.

The speaker advocated more fire escapes on buildings employing women workers. She preferred women inspectors of buildings where women are employed, rather than male inspectors. The league works to make things easier for women clerks in stores and other parts of trade was described in detail.

Miss Wiggin said that customers make it very hard at times for the saleslady. Many women patrons are inconsiderate and work on the nerves of the clerks. She described the actions of some women shoppers, who often make life miserable for hard-working salesladies.

After the talk by the visiting speaker, Mrs. H. J. Maguire, president, announced that Miss Blanche Cheney of the Normal school faculty would be the speaker next Tuesday afternoon.

WINTER CARNIVAL IS POSTPONED

The winter carnival planned for Thursday and Friday of this week has been postponed to the same days next week, so as not to interfere with the attractions offered by Lowell automobile dealers at the Casino in connection with their annual show. The matter of postponement was discussed last night at the meeting of the Lowell Ad club, the automobile association and the mayor taking part in the conference.

EUGENE A. FITZGERALD DISTRICT COURT CHANGE

Councilor From Ward Two Presented Purse of Gold at Banquet Question of Changing Location of Local Court Discussed at Meeting

Eugene A. Fitzgerald, councilor from Ward 2, was given every incentive to make good in his first political venture last night when a dinner in his honor was given at Marie's restaurant, attended by two score and more of his friends and well-wishers. It was a most marked by genuine enthusiasm and frankness by sincere friendship and a desire to see the new councilor progress rapidly in city affairs, not only to his own credit, but to the credit of his district, that has turned out many sterling political leaders in other years.

As one of the happiest features of the dinner, Councilor Fitzgerald presented a substantial purse of gold, the gift of his friends and presenters, for them by Daniel B. Martin, city auditor, who made an admirable toastmaster. Mr. Fitzgerald had real difficulty in expressing his feelings and admitted that while he knew of the presentation never entered his mind. He said he would make every effort to merit the confidence of his friends and would give his best thought to the people of Ward 2, whom he has the honor to represent. "Betterment of the city as a whole, also will be my aim while in office," he added.

Before resuming his seat Councilor Fitzgerald spoke feelingly of the late Dennis A. Murphy, of the high regard and esteem in which he had been held by the people of his district and said he would make an effort to fill his shoes and give to the ward the same whole-hearted consideration that marked the political life of the former councilor and representative.

Among the speakers called upon by Toastmaster Martin were James J. Gallagher, president of this year's city council; Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan, city solicitor; Joseph P. Donahue, Esq., William A. Walsh, president of the Broadway club; Michael F. Quinn and John J. Keefe, candidate against Mr. Fitzgerald at the last election.

Entertainment was furnished by Edward Donohue, Wesley and Arthur Davy, George Sullivan, Michael Molloy and William Quinn. The committee who arranged the appreciation dinner were composed of Lawrence McGrath, William Molloy, Michael Kelly, Leo McCarthy, George Swallow, R. Dumfry, D. Shanahan, P. McMahon, William Mahoney, James Heenan and Frank O'Loughlin.

It was moved by Max Goldman, that a committee be appointed to confer with the city council at its next meeting and request an appropriation of a quarter of a million dollars for the erection of a new structure. J. Joseph Hennessey, objected to this because of "the fullness of results" and it is absurd, he added, "to ask for that appropriation, as it would mean public hearings and the approval of various organizations." He also stated that a house question belongs to the county commissioners. Mr. Hennessey favored a removal to Gorham street, as he thought such a move would further fraternal spirit among the men employed in the profession.

President B. B. Quinn, at the meeting of the county commission at the meeting, said it did not seem justifiable that the county commission should erect a new building in the downtown area of Lowell, when there is such a wonderful building available in Gorham street. He agreed that additional facilities are badly needed for the proper conduct of district court work here in Lowell. The meeting adjourned with the appointment of the above-named committee.
